UVODNA RIJEĆ

Ne znam gdje završava Revija i počinje Festival. Ili gdje počinje Revija i završava Festival. Revija i Festival dvije su toliko isprepletene sastavnice ovog četverodnevног događanja da je uistinu nemoguće zamisliti Reviju bez Festivala ili obrnuto. Kao i u ovogodišnjem foršpanu, oni zajedno tvore jedinstvenu žutu bocu. Jer i sama Revija kao da je neprestano tražila svoj Festival. Prvo je devet godina bila združena s Revijom djece, pa dvije godine s odraslima, da bi se na 12. izdanju napokon u Karlovcu osamostala, kao Revija hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva mladeži (danas skraćena na Filmsku reviju mladeži). Ali ne zadugo. Već godinu dana kasnije, stigao je njezin mlađi brat s međunarodnim kromosomima - Four River Film Festival. Tako je i to 12. izdanje (a prvo karlovačko) zapravo svojevrsno nulto festivalsko izdanje. Svojevrsni test snage i izdržljivosti - možemo li ići korak dalje, možemo li pokrenuti i međunarodni festival. Ideja koja je u jesen 2006. godine bila tek entuziastičan list papira, 2007. se pokazala izvedivom. Uostalom, kako je Emil (voditelj tehnike, op. ur.) spomenuo: trenutak koji ga se najviše dojmio u proteklih par godina je razgovor koji je slučajno čuo netom poslije završene prve karlovačke Revije 2007. godine. Bio je to razgovor između tete Vere (kako je i danas od milja zovemo) i nepoznatog mu čovjeka u kojem je ona rekla kako je ovo, što ju je dočekalo u Karlovcu, iznad svih njezinih očekivanja. Bio je to i više nego dobar podstreh za Festival.

U Karlovcu je 2008. godine osvanulo i prvo izdanje međunarodnog festivala srednjoškolskog filma. Danas, 1461 dan kasnije, Four River slavi mali jubilej - peti rođendan. Što se promjenilo u pet izdanja? Ušli smo recesiju, izmijenili čak dva premijera i premijerku, na korak smo do ulaska u EU, nismo se plasirali na Svjetsko prvenstvo u nogometu... No, jednakoj tako u pet godina, od početna 42 prijavljena filma, pet godina kasnije prijavljeno ih je 288. Nekada smo goste molili da dođu u Karlovac, danas isti ti gosti mole za mjesto viška.

Od grada koji je bio samo usputna stanica do mora, Karlovac je postao grad u koji se mladi filmaši itekako rado vraćaju s komentariima: "Pa to nije samo sivi autobusni kolodvor." A zašto? Upravo zbog svih oni ljudi u žutom koji marljivo rade kako biste vi, festivalski gosti: autori i voditelji, festivalska publika, kolege s ostalih festivala, svake godine u Karlovcu uživali. Osim vama, koji itekako činite Reviju i Festival velikim, želim zahvaliti ljudima koji su posljednjih pet godina gradili Filmsku reviju mladeži i Four River Film Festival! Hvala vam!

→ I don't know where the Youth Festival ends and the Four River begins. Nor where the Youth Festival begins and the Four River ends. They are two so intertwined segments of this four-day event that is it simply impossible to imagine one without the other. Like in this year's trailer, together they make a unique yellow bottle. The Youth Festival itself kept searching for its Four River. First, for nine years, it came hand in hand with the Children's Festival, then for two years, it was organized together with the adults' festival, only to finally get its independence in Karlovac, as the Croatian Youth Film and Video Revue (today shortened to Youth Film Festival). But not for long. Only a year later, it got a baby brother with international chromosomes – the Four River Film Festival. This 12th edition (the first held in Karlovac) was actually the inception of the Four River. A test of strength and resilience of sorts – whether we can take it a step further, whether we can also create an international festival. The idea that was, in the autumn of 2006, just an enthusiastic thought on a piece of paper, proved achievable in 2007. As Emil [head of technical team] mentioned: the moment that was the most impressive for him in the last few years, was the conversation he overheard, in which "aunty" Vera (the way we still affectionately call her) was telling somebody that what she found in Karlovac, exceeded all of her expectations. That laid more than solid foundations for the Four River.

The first edition of the international festival of high school film in Karlovac came in 2008. Today, 1461 days later, the Four River celebrates a little anniversary – its fifth birthday. What has changed over the last five editions? We have entered recession, changed three Prime Ministers, we are one step away from entering the EU, we didn't make it to the World Cup... Yet, during these five years, we have gone from receiving 42 films for the FRFF competition to receiving 288. We used to have to ask our guests to come to Karlovac, today those same guests ask us for an extra place at the festival. From a town that was just a pit stop on the way to the coast, Karlovac has become a town to which young filmmakers are happy to return, saying: "Hey, this is not just a town with a dusty coach terminal." And why is that? Precisely because of all those people in yellow working hard so that you, the guests of the festival - authors, mentors, festival audience, colleagues from other festivals - could enjoy yourselves in Karlovac each year. In addition to you, who are a very important part of YFF and FRFF, I would like to thank all the people who have in the last five years helped build the Youth Film Festival and the Four River Film Festival. Thank you!

INTRODUCTORY WORD

KARLOVAČKE FILMSKE SVETKOVINE

A Feast of Film in Karlovac

PET GODINA FOUR RIVER FILM FESTIVALA

Kratka rekapitulacija

Dobro je raditi filmove o ljudima koji su vam zanimljivi i koje želite bolje upoznati. Ukoliko tu radoznalost i radost upoznavanja uspijete prenijeti na gledatelje, stvorit ćete li jepe filmove.

Vedran Šamanović, član žirija 12. Revije hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva mladeži

Punih jedanaest godina popularna Revija hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva djece i mladeži nalikovala je kakvoj divnoj ciganjskoj čergi, koja se, pustopašno, skita hrvatskim gradovima nudeći brojnim filmoljupcima pregristi mladenački svježih filmskih draguljičića. Tome je bilo tako sve dok se, za svoga dvanaestog izdanja, jednim svojim dijelom, onim srednjoškolskog stvaralaštva, nije trajno skrasila u gradu na četiri rijeke, Karlovcu, gdje je, osim tolikih rijeka, već postojao i Kino-klub Karlovac animiran agilnošću njegova utemeljitelja i voditelja, današnjeg gradonačelnika Karlovačkog Damira Jelića.

Više je razloga zbog kojih je upravo Karlovac, među tolikim aspirantima, stekao privilegij da trajno udomači Reviju srednjoškolskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva. Kao prvo, u tom je gradu već postojao kvalitetno organiziran i osmišljen kino klub koji je, u zaista kratkom vremenu, uspio okupiti darovite mlade ljude sklene da se igralački okušaju u tvorbni filmskih minijatura praktički u svim raspoloživim žanrovima, ali ponajviše u domeni filmske animacije. Nije trebalo dugo čekati pa da se iz pregršti svježih djelca, jedan rad i na razini hrvatske kinematografije prepozna kao izuzetno zrelo ostvarenje. Dakako, riječ je o suptilnoj Anomiji Vjekoslava Živkovića.

Drugi razlog neupitna promoviranja baš Karlovca u festivalsko središte srednjoškolskog stvaralaštva također vuče korijene iz spomenuta gradskog kluba u kojem se, među tolikima koji su maštali da prave svoje filmove, našla i Marija Ratković Vidačković, izuzetno domišljata i poduzetna mlada osoba, koja je relativno brzo shvatila da u sebi posjeduje jednu drugu ništa manje dragocjenu vrst potencijala – onu podizanja svoga Karlovca na razinu nezaobilaznog kinoamaterskog središta i ne samo u okvirima Hrvatske. I to onog Karlovca koji je, kao grad izuzetno bogate kino prikazivalačke tradicije, bio svojedobno primoran zatvoriti svih svojih pet gradskih kina! Naoružana određenim stručnim znanjima što ih je bila stekla pohađajući već od svoje petnaeste godine Školu medijske kulture u Trakošćanu, vrijedna je Marija bila posve spremna da se uhvati ukoštač s visokim zadacima koje si je sama bila postavila. Uz to, uspjela je оформiti kompetentan i fleksibilan tim suradnika, među kojima se ističe pouzdana i predana Sanja Zanki. No, iskrsne li nešto nepredviđeno, tu je i tzv. Marijin interventni vod u svakom trenutku spreman da ukloni kavku prepreku!

Trajnoj lociranosti Revije baš u Karlovcu pogoduje i činjenica da se grad nalazi u neposrednoj blizini hrvatske metropole. Ne samo što su u Zagrebu locirane brojne filmske družine koje sudjeluju na

FIVE YEARS OF FOUR RIVER FILM FESTIVAL

Reviji, već je na dohvati ruke i koproducent Revije Hrvatski filmski savez kao važan partner u vođenju i osmišljavanju manifestacije; tajnica Saveza Vera Robić-Škarića i predsjednik Hrvoje Turković čvrsti su njezini osloinci.

Karlovac kao platforma za uvi-jek nove i nove uzlete idealan je i sa svoje pozicioniranosti u gradu: povijesno znamenita i kul-tna zgrada Zorin dom, gdje je Re-vija zaživjela, smještena je reklo bi se "na čelu" središnjeg, prelijepog gradskog parka koji svojim šetnicama i finom odnjegovanosću pruža brojnim sudionicima Revije ne samo blagotvorni doticaj s prirodom usred grada, već i atraktivne lokacije za filmove što se, po specijaliziranim radionica-ma, proizvode na Reviji.

Mijenjanje strana (Seiten Wechseln)

U 12. broju kataloga Revije hr-vatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva mladeži na 40. stranici može-mo pročitati članak pod nazivom Mijenjanje strana, koji će s valjanim razlogom citirati u cijelo-sti: "Još dok je organizacija Revije bila u svojim kreativnim povo-ji-ma (kraj studenog 2006.), u jednom sasvim slučajnom razgovoru saznalo se za film Mijenjanje strana. Kao i naša Revija, i taj film je tada bio tek na polovici svoga posla, no to nas uopće nije spu-tavalo da ga dovućemo u Karlovac! Radi se, naime, o koproduk-ciji dviju srednjih škola, jedne iz Njemačke (Norderstadt), a duge iz Rusije (St. Petersburg). Na pro-jeektu je sudjelovalo 18 učenika koji se nikada prije nisu bavili fil-mom (!). Cilj nije bio samo upo-znavanje s filmskom umjetnosti, već i multikulturalna suradnja (Rusija – Njemačka). Snimalo se 20 dana, i to na lokacijama u oba-ma zemljama, a sve pod patrona-tom filmske redateljice iz Berlina Tanje Brzaković i profesora film-ske umjetnosti iz Norderstadt-a Andreasa Wesslinga. Kako je Re-vija zamišljena kao ovogodišnja "meka za srednjoškolski film", s tendencijom da se sljedeće godi-ne razvije u međunarodni festival filma mladeži (spac P.K.), opcija da film "Mijenjanje strana" bude prikazan u Karlovcu pokazala se naprosto idealnom - srednjoškolski projekt, međunarodna sura-dnja, i uza sve to, činjenica da je ri-ječ o cijelovečernjem filmu, što se do sada nitko od srednjoš-kolaca u Hrvatskoj nije usudio napraviti! I baš zbog toga - ako je petak navečer rezerviran za svečano otvaranje festivala, su-bota je kao stvorena za hrvatsku premijeru jednog takvog projekta. Posebnu draž svemu daje po-datak da će par učenika sudio-nika projekta te njihov mentor biti u Karlovcu za vrijeme same Revije!"

Four River Film Festival

Napokon, evo me na terenu moje središnje teme – one među-narodnog dijela karlovačke Re-vije, s pravom poznate pod do-bro pogodenim i lako pamtljivim nazivom Four river film festival. U te puke četiri riječi krije se toliko toga! Dakako, odmah je uočljivo da, uz naziv na engleskom, nije predočen i hrvatski prijevod – Festival na četiri rijeke. Učinjeno je to s valjanim razlogom: karlovački festival jest hrvatski festi-val, ali isključivo okrenut – au-torima iz inozemstva. U njemu s pravom nema mjesta za hrvatsku srednjoškolsku proizvodnju jer je ta proizvodnja dobila u Karlovcu svoje, posve komforno, autono-mno mjesto. A engleski je jezik, svidalo se to nekim ili ne, ste-kao status univerzalnog, svjetski rasprostranjenog jezika, jezika planeta Zemlja! Uvjeren sam da je među srednjoškolcima iz Hr-vatske, koji pohađaju, s ovih ili onih razloga, ovaj festival, malo onih koji ne razumiju ili ne govo-re taj jezik. Isto vrijedi i za brojne inozemne došljake s neengleskog govornog područja.

I mnogi se drugi semantič-ki potencijali kriju u spomenutim četirima riječima. Četiri rije-ke koje okružuju ili prožimaju grad Karlovac sadrže u sebi ideju pluralnosti, višeglasja: njima se može ploviti u različitim pravci-ma, različitim plovilima, ali i pro-mjenljivim brzinama – ponekad odmjereno, a gdjekad neobuzda-no i riskantno.

Za razliku od Zagreba koji je, valjda kao jedini te vrste u svijetu, bježao u brda od svoje rijeke, Karlovac je doslovce pohitao u blagotvorno naručje svojih rije-ka. Stoga, kada se u naslovu spominju četiri rijeke kojima se priklonio Festival, mislimo i na onu životvornost pa i plodnost koja potiče iz rijeka. Općenito – voda!

A sada, semantičke varijacije časkom odmijenimo egzaktnošću statističkih pokazatelja!

Na četiri izdanja Four river film festivala sudjelovalo je 25 zemalja sa 165 video radova. Izraziti favorit Karlovca svakako je Velika Britanija. Publika je imala zadovoljstvo vidjeti čak 42 ostvarenja pristigla s Otoka – mahom svi od reda znatnih kvaliteta, zaigranosti pa i relevancije. Na visokom drugom mjestu, iznenađujuće, smjestio se naš prvi susjed Slovenija sa 14 ostvarenja; treći su Nijemci sa 12 naslova.

Iza vodećeg terceta slijede: Danska (9), Irska (8), Srbija (8), Južna Koreja (7), Turska (7), Belgija (6), Austrija (3), Kina (3), Makedonija (3), Litva (3).

A tu su s filmom ili dva i: BIH, Bangladeš, SAD, Rumunjska, Španjolska, Finska, Mađarska, Italija, Libanon, Republika Česka, Kanada.

Odmah je uočljivo da su čak tri kontinenta “zaobišla” Karlovac: Australija, Afrika i Južna Amerika.

Nakon nedavnog boravka Marije Ratković Vidaković u SAD-u, vjerujemo da će i te strane pustići kakva bogata i atraktivna pošiljka!

Što to, s izvedbenog ali i tematskog stajališta, karakterizira program Four river film festivala? Srednjoškolci, s pravom, posvećuju podjednaku pažnju svim filmskim rodovima: animiranom, dokumentarnom, igranom, eksperimentalnom, te promidžbenom.

Nije da ne bismo u ponekom filmu zamijetili i određene naznake propitkivanja o prirodi i granicama samog medija, ali kao da im je kudikamo privlačnije maštovito miješanje rodova. U nadahnutijim radovima prevladavajuće dokumentarna faktura igralački fleksibilno surađuje s animiranim ili igranim interpolacijama; igrani će pak posegnuti za eksperimentalnim, a animirani za igranim pa i dokumentarnim, itd.

Dakako, ne zaboravlja se niti uvijek omiljena kolažistička tehnika, ovdje primjenjena u znatnom broju ostvarenja.

I premda bi neka stručno minuciozna analiza uočila i niz drugih posebnosti sa stajališta izvedbena repertoara, svejedno u sva četiri izdanja manifestacije Four river film festival dominira tematsko nad izvedbenim. Mali autori drže da je ovo trenutak kada i oni trebaju (moraju) kritički izravno svjedočiti o brojnim devijantnostima svijeta u kojem živimo.

Dakle, u velikom broju svojih filmova (!) govore o dubioznom statusu Roma u različitim sredinama (Turska, Slovenija, Srbija, Bangladeš...), o socijalnoj neprilagođenosti mladih odanih kriminalu, o dvojici prijatelja u ratu koji su se našli na suprotnim stranama, o preprekama koje su u nama, o ugroženosti prirode, o statusu supkulturnih skupina, o izgradnji nuklearne bombe u drugom svjetskom ratu, o preljevu majke, o maloljetničkom nasilju i organiziranim bandama, o 12-godišnjem Selimu koji obavlja teške fizičke poslove, o global-nom zatopljenju, o zidu na Bliskom istoku, o siromaštvu usred potrošačkog društva, o konfliktu mladih s roditeljima i okolinom, o nesnošljivosti prema homoseksualcima, o zagrobnom životu, o dilemi između ljubavi i revolucije, o posljedicama recezije, o problemima odrastanja, o hendičepiranoj djeci koju tjeraju da kradu, o sukobu s roditeljima zbog ljubavi prema trombonu, o unuki i baki koje skupa puše joint, o uličnom nasilju, o zlostavljanju dječaka i osudi osvete, o svetom Savi, o sukobu susjeda zbog posjeda, o političarima kao velikim prodavačima magle, o ljubavi i egzistencijalnim jadima, o brisanju granica između stvarnog i virtualnog, o tinejdžerskim snovima, o holokaustu, o tome kako dobaviti kondom, o klincima sklonim riskantnim igrama, o prijateljstvima preko računala, o mirnom svijetu Googla i stvarnom svijetu rata i nasilja...

Dakako, četiri izdanja Four river film festivala posjedovala su, nasuprot prevladavajuće mračnom dijelu predočenih filmova, pregršt divnih, zaigranih i prpošnih komedija kojima su se sladili brojni posjetitelji hvalevrijedne manifestacije.

S nestripljenjem očekujemo novo izdanje Filmske revije mlađe i Four River Film Festivala!

»A short overview

It is good to make films about people you find interesting and about whom you want to learn more. If you manage to transmit this curiosity and joy of learning to the viewer, you will make beautiful films.

Vedran Šamanović, member of the jury of the 12th Youth Film Festival

For eleven years the popular Croatian Youth and Children Film and Video Revue (today: the Youth Film Festival) has resembled an itinerant screening show travelling from town to town, offering numerous youthfully fresh film gems to film lovers around Croatia. It was thus until, during its twelfth edition, one part of it, that of high school film, settled permanently in the town by the four rivers, Karlovac, which, apart from many rivers, also had the Cinema Club Karlovac, animated by enthusiasm of its founder and leader, Damir Jelić, who is today the mayor of Karlovac.

There are several reasons why precisely Karlovac, among so many aspiring towns, received the privilege to permanently host the festival of high school film and video. Firstly, the town already had a well-organized and functioning cinema club which, in a really short time, managed to gather talented young people interested in playfully making film miniatures practically in all existing categories, but especially in the domain of film animation. From the bundle of fresh works, it did not take long for one film to be recognized at the national level as an exceptionally mature accomplishment. Of course, the film in question is the very subtle Anomy (Anomija), made by Vjekoslav Živković.

The second reason of promoting precisely Karlovac into the centre of high school film also has its origins in the afore mentioned cinema club in which, among so many who dreamed of making their own films, was Marija Ratković Vidaković, an exceptionally resourceful and hardworking young woman, who relatively quickly realized another, no less praiseworthy sort of potential within her – that of making her hometown, Karlovac, an indispensable centre of amateur film, and not only within the framework of Croatia but beyond. This was the same Karlovac that, as a town with an extremely rich history of cinema screening, was at one point forced to close down all five of its city cinemas! Armed with certain expertise she has acquired while attending the School of Media Culture held in Trakošćan since she was fifteen, the industrious Marija was completely ready to tackle the demanding tasks she set for herself. She also managed to put together a whole competent and flexible team of associates, among which stands out another dedicated and reliable young woman,

PET GODINA FOUR RIVER FILM FESTIVALA

Sanja Zanki. But if anything unexpected should come up, there is also, Marija's so-called SWAT team, ready to remove all obstacles at any given moment!

The permanent placement of the festival precisely in Karlovac was also aided by the fact that the town lies in the immediate vicinity of the capital. Not only are many film groups participating in the festival located in Zagreb, but the co-producer of the festival is also at hand – the Croatian Film Association, an important partner in running and curating the event; its Head Secretary, Vera Robić-Škarica, and its President, Hrvoje Turković, are great supporters of the event.

Karlovac as a platform for ever new challenges and accomplishments is also ideal because of its town landmarks: the historic and cult building of the city theatre Zorin dom, in which the festival initially took roots, is located at “the head” of the beautiful central city park with vast lawns and elegance that offer many participants of the festival not only a welcome contact with nature in the middle of the town, but also serve as attractive film locations for the films shot at specialized workshops taking place during the festival.

Changing Sides (Seiten Wechseln)

On the fortieth page of the catalogue of the 12th Croatian youth and children film and video revue there is an article entitled Changing sides, which I am rightly going to quote in its entirety: “While the preparations for the Revue were still in the earliest stages (end of November 2006), completely by accident, we found out in conversation about the film Changing Sides. Just like our festival, the film was at the time just half finished, but that fact did not prevent us from bringing it to Karlovac! The film was a co-production of two high schools, one from Germany (Norderstadt), the other from Russia (St. Petersburg). Eighteen students who have never before done any work with film participated in the project! The goal was not only to get acquainted with the art of film but also to encourage multicultural cooperation (Russia-Germany). The shoot lasted for 20 days, on locations in both countries, under the supervision of film director from Berlin, Tanja Brzaković, and a professor of film art from Norderstadt, Andreas Wessling. Since this year's festival has been conceived as a sort of “Mecca for high-school film”, with a tendency to become an international youth festival film, the option for the film “Changing Sides” to be screened in Karlovac proved to be simply ideal – a high school project, international cooperation, and on top of all that, the fact that this is a feature film, which is something no group of high school students dared to make in Croatia! Precisely because of this – Friday night being reserved for the grand opening of the festival - Saturday is meant for the Croatian premiere of such a project. A special feature is the fact that several students, participants in the project, and their mentor will be present in Karlovac during the

Festival itself!"

Four River Film Festival

Finally, I come to the central issue – the international segment of the festival in Karlovac, which goes by a very fitting and easily memorized name of the Four River Film Festival. These four little words reveal so much! Obviously, the title is in English and no Croatian translation is given, and there is reason for that: FRFF is a Croatian festival but it is dedicated strictly to foreign authors. It (rightly) does not leave room for Croatian high school film production because these films already have a whole autonomous festival of their own. And the English language, whether we like it or not, is a universal and widespread language throughout the world! I am sure that among Croatian high school students attending this festival, for whatever reason, there are few of those who do not understand or speak it. The same is true for the numerous festival guests from non-English-speaking countries.

The already mentioned four words reveal even more semantic potential. The four rivers surrounding or flowing through Karlovac contain within them the idea of plurality of voices: these rivers can be sailed in different directions, in different vessels, but also at changing speeds – sometimes moderately, at other times taking risks and rowdily.

Unlike Zagreb, which is probably the only city to flee its river and take to the hills, Karlovac literally rushed to the comfortable arms of its rivers. Therefore, when it comes to the four rivers in the festival's title, they also refer to life-giving energy and fertility stemming from them. Generally speaking – water!

And now, let us put semantic variations aside for a moment and observe the exact statistic indicators!

In the four editions of the Four River Film Festival, 25 countries participated with 165 video works. Leading the field is definitely the United Kingdom. The audience has had the pleasure of seeing as many as 42 films from the UK – mostly of great quality, playfulness and relevance. The second place, surprisingly, is held by our first neighbour, Slovenia, with 14 films in competition, while Germany holds the third place with 12 films.

They are followed by: Denmark (9), Ireland (8), Serbia (8), South Korea (7), Turkey (7), Belgium (6), Austria (3), China (3), Moldova (3), Lithuania (3).

And there is also a film or two from: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bangladesh, USA, Romania, Spain, Finland, Hungary, Italy, Lebanon, the Czech Republic and Canada.

It is clear that as many as three continents still elude Karlovac: Australia, Africa and South America.

After Marija Ratković Vidaković's recent stay in the USA, it is probable that a rich and attractive package of films will arrive from that part, too!

What is it that, from the organizational and thematic point of view, defines the programme of the Four River Film Festival? High school students rightly dedicate equal attention to all types of films categories: animated, documentary, fiction, experimental and commissioned.

Not that we could not notice in some of the films certain hints of questioning the nature and limits of the medium itself, but it is as if they prefer to creatively mix the categories. In the more inspired works, the documentary component playfully comes together with animated or live action interpolations; fictional film might, on the other hand, reach for the experimental, and the animated for the live action or even documentary categories.

Of course, we should not forget the much-loved technique of collage, here applied in a considerable number of works.

And though a meticulous expert analysis might encounter a series of other particularities from the point of view of the festival's programme, in all four of the previous editions of FRFF, the thematic still domineers over the performative. Young authors believe this is the moment in which they, too, have to critically point to a number of problems in the world in which we live.

Therefore, a great number of films (!) speak about the problematic status of Roma people in different countries (Turkey, Slovenia, Serbia, Bangladesh...), socially maladjusted young criminals, two friends who find themselves on opposite sides during the war, the obstacles within us, the endangered nature, the status of subcultures, building a nuclear bomb during WW II, a mother's infidelity, juvenile delinquency and organized gangs, a 12-year-old doing hard physical labour, global warming, a wall in the Middle East, poverty in the midst of a consumer society, the conflict between teenagers and their parents and society, intolerance towards gay people, afterlife, choosing between love and revolution, the consequences of recession, the problems of growing up, children with disabilities who are made to steal, the conflict with parents because of the love for trombone, a granddaughter and grandma smoking a joint together, street violence, abused boys and the judgment of revenge, Saint Sava, land disputes, politicians as manipulators, love and existential woes, blurring the boundaries between the real and virtual, teenage dreams, the Holocaust, buying condoms, kids prone to risky games, friendships over the internet, the peaceful world of Google and the real world of war and violence...

Of course, the four editions of FRFF also had, in contrast to the prevailingly dark segment of many films, a lot of wonderful, playful and quirky comedies for the numerous visitors to enjoy in at the festival.

We eagerly await the latest edition of the Youth Film Festival and the Four River Film Festival!

FIVE YEARS OF FOUR RIVER FILM FESTIVAL

JUSTINA KOSIR, dobitnica Grand Prix-a 12. Revije hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva mlađeži › Grand Prix winner of the 12th Croatian Youth Film and Video Revue

"Čovjek koji je smrskao kip" bio mi je prvi samostalni, ozbiljniji film. Bila sam sva nesigurna i jadna jer i Revija je, za razliku od ostalih festivala na kojima sam do tada bila, imala nekako profesionalnije ozračje. Na dodjeli nagrada kad je proglašena kategorija animacije, već sam bila odustala i držala se kao silno dostojanstveno, o Grand Prixu stvarno nisam ni razmišljala. I onda, tko je prisustvovao dodjeli nagrada, možda se i sjeća vriska (dostojanstvene) uplakane djevojke koja jedva procijedi "hvala" u mikrofon i pobegne s pozornice gledići bocu u kojoj je filmska traka. Ali nije mi neugodno, iako sam u svom klubu tu priču o vrisku i plaču još kako dugo slušala.

› "The Man Who Smashed the Statue" was my first serious, solo film. I was all insecure and miserable because the YFF, unlike other festivals I had attended, seemed altogether more professional. At the award ceremony when the animation category was announced, I had already given up and I tried to seem extremely dignified, the thought of winning the Grand Prix hadn't even crossed my mind. And then, the people who were there at the ceremony perhaps remember a scream of a (dignified) girl in tears who was barely able to say "thank you" into the microphone and ran from the stage nursing the bottle containing film strip. Though I had to hear that story about the scream and the tears for a long time at my cinema club, I'm not embarrassed.

ARSEN A. OSTOJIĆ, filmski redatelj, član ocjenjivačkog suda 12. Revije hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva mlađeži › film director, member of the jury of the 12th Croatian Youth Film and Video Revue

Kada sam dobio poziv da bu-

dem članom ocjenjivačkog suda, nisam se ni najmanje dvoumio. I sam sam nekada, kao tinejdžer, sudjelovaо na revijama amaterskog filma i znaо sam koliko to znači mlađim autorima koji s beskrajnim poletom rade svoje prve filmove i željno iščekuju prva predstavljanja javnosti. Dodatni podstrek bili su mi kolege članovi žirija, od kojih jedan, nažalost, više nije među nama - vrsni snimatelj Vedran Šamanović. Tih nekoliko dana tijekom trajanja festivala proteklo je u doista skladnom radu i iskrenom zadovoljstvu videći toliko kvalitetnih radova mlađih filmaša.

› When I received the invitation to be a member of the jury, I had not the slightest doubt whether or not to do it. I used to participate at amateur film revues as a teenager so I knew how much that meant to young authors who make their first films with endless enthusiasm and eagerly await their first public screening. An additional incentive were my colleague jury members, one of whom is unfortunately no longer with us - the excellent cinematographer Vedran Šamanović. Those few days of the festival

"LJEPO JE BITI KARLOVČANIN KAD SE GRAD U DOBA FESTIVALA I REVJE ZAŽUTI.", "IT IS NICE TO BE A RESIDENT OF KARLOVAC WHEN THE TOWN COLOURS ITSELF YELLOW DURING YFF AND FRFF."

were marked by really harmonious work and true pleasure, seeing so many quality films by young filmmakers.

BOJAN PERIĆ, dobitnik Grand Prix-a 13. Revije hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva mladeži i 1. Four River Film Festival; kasnije redatelj Festivalskih kronika › Grand Prix winner of the 13th Youth Film Festival and the 1st Four River Film Festival; later director of the Festival Chronicle

Kada sam došao prvi puta u Karlovac na Reviju 2007. godine, kao sudionik, sve je bilo izvrsno. Atmosfera, ekipa, organizacija, dodatne aktivnosti. Bilo je to opušteno, zabavno i ispunjeno druženje. Filmovi su bili odlični i sve je bilo na svom mjestu. Već 2008. godine, paralelno s Revijom pokrenut je Four river film festival, koji je od samih početaka bio festival filma i to nam je kao sudionicima puno značilo. Godinu dana kasnije postao sam i član organizacijskog tima. Moj posao na festivalu dao mi je poziciju tzv. big brothera i brzo je postalo jasno zašto mi je bilo tako dobro ovdje kao sudioniku... Organizacijska ekipa rastura u svim sektorima i svi rade sinhrono. Radi se udarnički, ali nikome nije teško. Pozitivna energija organizacijskog tima je krucijalni katalizator (haha, kemija) koji omogućava izvršenje ove, više nego bitne, reakcije. Mislim da je srednjoškolski film, u Hrvatskoj i svijetu, našao svoje prirodno stanište na četiri rijeke.

› When I first came to Karlovac for the festival in 2007, as a participant, everything was excellent. The atmosphere, the people, the organization, the extra activities. The time we spent together was relaxing, fun and interesting. The films were great and everything was just as it should be. In 2008, when the Four River Film Festival was started alongside the Youth Festival, it was clear that it was a festival devoted to film, and that meant a lot to the participants. A year later, I myself became a member of the organizational team. My job at the festival was to be a sort of big brother and it soon became clear why I had had such a great time as a participant ... The organizational team works hard on all the segments and everyone is in sync. There is a lot of hard work, but nobody has trouble doing it. Their positive energy is the crucial catalyst (haha, chemistry) which makes this highly important reaction happen. I think high school film, both in Croatia and abroad, has found its natural habitat by these four rivers.

NANDOR GROSCH, direktor Kid's Eye Film Festivala iz Budimpešte › director of Kid's Eye Film Festival from Budapest

Bio sam u Karlovcu dva puta i svaki put je to gostovanje na meneostavilo snažan dojam. Činjenica je da su program i svi drugi sadržaji na festivalu prilagođeni mladima. Mladi ljudi su u centru zbivanja, okružuje ih izuzetna prijateljska atmosfera, a to sve djeluje na njihov razvoj i kreativnost. I uporavo je to vrijednost ovog festivala.

› I have been to Karlovac twice and each time being a guest there left a strong impression on me. The fact that the programme and the additional content are tailored to young people; they are at the centre, surrounded by an extremely friendly atmosphere and all of this affects their creative development in a positive way. This is precisely the greatest importance of this festival.

LEON LUČEV, glumac i prijatelj Revije i Festivala › actor and friend of YFF and FRFF

Karlovac sam pohodio nekoliko puta: kao član žirija, kao pratitelj djece sa Zlarina, te kao voditelj radionice. To je iznimno organiziran festival, koji su kreirala "djeca" iz Kinokluba Karlovac koja imaju viziju. Izniman korak je internacionalizacija festivala koja omogućava dijeljenje iskustava i s djecom iz drugih zemalja. Odličan čin upoznавanja te prihvaćenja o različitosti kroz umjetnost. No, u prvom redu, divno je da postoji mjesto poput Revije i Festivala gdje mladi imaju mogućnost, kroz druženje i gledanje filmova, dati podršku jedni drugima u njihovom umjetničkom odrastanju. Sretno mu! Festivalu!

› I have visited Karlovac several times: as a member of the jury, as friend of the kids from Zlarin, and as a workshop teacher. It is an extremely well-organized festival, created by the kids from the Cinema Club Karlovac who have a clear vision of what they are doing. Turning the festival into an international one is a very big step because it also enables them to exchange experiences with kids from other countries. It is a wonderful act of opening up and meeting new people, of acceptance and learning through art. But most of all, it is wonderful that there is a place like the YFF and FRFF, where young people have a chance to support each other in their artistic development while hanging out and watching films together. Good luck to it!

To the festival!

BUGA MARIJA ŠIMIĆ, članica žirija Žute zastave 2009. godine › member of the Yellow Flag Award jury in 2009

Na Reviju sam došla prvi put 2009. godine i uopće nisam znala što očekivati. Bila sam i dio žirija za tek ustanovljenu nagradu

"Žuta zastava", a do tada niti sam ikada bila na filmskom festivalu ovakve vrste niti sam ikada bila u žiriju, tako da je za mene sve na Reviji bilo novo iskustvo. Pogledala sam u tri dana više filmova nego u cijelom svom životu do tada. Upoznala sam puno ljudi sa svih strana

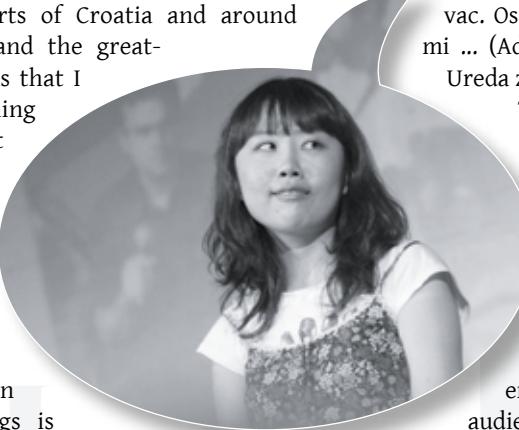

Hrvatske i svijeta, a najbolje od svega je bilo to da sam sa svakim imala o čemu razgovarati. Naći se na istom mjestu s toliko različitim ljudi koje zanimaju slične stvari super je osjećaj i nigdje se ne osjećaš izostavljeno ili kao da bi volio otići doma jer ti je dosadno. Sve je bilo puno mladih ljudi koje jednostavno zanima film, nije bilo nekakve učenosti niti formalnosti, već samo pozitivna atmosfera koja se protezala kroz sva četiri dana i sva događanja. Sve u svemu, jedno

predivno iskustvo!

I first came to the festival in 2009 and I had no idea what to expect. I was also part of the Yellow Flag Award jury created only that year, and until then I had never been to a film festival of this kind, nor had I ever participated in a jury, so everything at the festival was a new experience for me. In the three days, I saw more films than in my entire life until then. I met many people from different parts of Croatia and around the world, and the greatest thing was that I had something to talk about with all of them. Being with so many different people who are interested in similar things is a great feeling and you never feel left out or that you'd like to go home because you're bored. There were so many young people simply interested in film, there were no unnecessary formalities and rigidity, only a positive atmosphere that stretched over the four days and all the events. All in all, a beautiful experience!

JIHYE HWANG, dobitnica Grand Prix 15. filmske revije mladeži i 3. Four River Film Festivala › Grand Prix winner of the 15th Youth Film Festival and the 3rd Four River Film Festival

Festival je bio odličan i krasan! Svi koji rade na festivalu biti su dragi i voljni pomoći. Festival je bio za svakoga, svi su mogli u njemu uživati: gosti, publika ... Ako dobijem priliku, volio bih ponovno doći u Karlovac. Osim toga, Adrijana, nedostaješ mi ... (Adrijana Dimić, koordinatorica Ureda za goste, op. ur.)

The festival was wonderful and fantastic! All the staff were very kind and very helpful. Also, the festival was for everyone. I mean, everyone could enjoy it: guests, audience.... If I get an opportunity like this, I would like to come to Karlovac festival again. Btw., I miss you, Adrijana.

[Adrijana Dimić, Guest Office Coordinator]

ANDREI TANASE, član ocjenjivačkog suda 16. filmske revije mladeži i 4. Four River Film Festivala › member of the jury of the 16th Youth Film Festival and the 4th Four River Film Festival

Malo je stvari u životu koje su uzbudljivije i zanimljivije od gledanja kratkih filmova koje su snimila djeca ili tinejdžeri. Bez iskustva, bez akademskog obrazovanja, bez budžeta i predrasuda. Samo strast za snimanjem filma. Rijedak dragulj. Jedva čekam proslaviti s Marijom i ostalom ekipom 50. izdanje Four River Film Festivala!

› Few things in life are more exciting and fascinating than watching short films made by kids or teenagers. No experience, no academic education, no budget and no preconceptions. Just the passion for filmmaking.

A rare gem.
I can't wait to celebrate the 50th edition of the Four River Film Festival together with Marija & co.!

DANIELA TRBOVIĆ, TV voditeljica › TV show host

Ja sam ona koja već godinama sudionicima Revije i Festivala kažem - dobrodošli ili doviđenja. Nažalost, filmove ne stignem gledati, ali nasreću, svaki put osjetim dio dragocjene atmosfere, koja zahvaljujući mladim filmašima, zavlada mojim rodnim gradom. Koncerti, projekcije, tribine, osmjesi, radost i energija oplemenjuju i uljepšavaju svakodnevnicu grada. Lijepo je biti Karlovčanka kad se grad u doba Festivala i Revije zažuti.

› I'm the one who wishes the guests of the festival welcome or goodbye every year, at the festival opening or closing. Unfortunately, I don't have time to see the films, but luckily, I get to catch a glimpse of the precious atmosphere that, thanks to these young filmmakers, takes hold of my home town. The concerts, the screenings, the debates, the smiles, the joy and the energy enrich and enliven the town's daily life. Taj entuzijazam i danas postoji, ali za razliku od onog s prve Revije koji je proizlazio iz Kinokluba Karlovac i Videodružine Gimnazije Karlovac, ovaj danas proizlazi iz nekih drugih izvorišta. Ljudi vezani uz Reviju i Festival nisu više isključivo dio Kluba ili Družine već su sada više vezani uz festivale i film općenito, pa otuda taj neki novi miris entuzijazma i štimung koji nosi Revija i Festival danas.

The first edition was just that, the FIRST one, and then different conditions applied, which are not that necessary any more, and that ingredient is enthusiasm. When you're starting something from a scratch and raising it from the ashes, with very little knowledge and even less money, then everything is done with a lot of love and even more enthusiasm. The enthusiasm is still here, but unlike then, when it was stemming from the Cinema Club Karlovac and the Kar-

Iako je, po meni, to dvoje teško uopće za uspoređivati jer uvjeti u kojima je sve bilo odradivano na početku i sada stvarno su kao nebo i zemlja. Ali prva Revija je, kao što i samo ime kaže, PRVA pa su tada vladale neke zakonitosti kojih sada nema jer nema potre-lovac Gimnasium Video Group, now it comes from different sources. People organizing the YFF and FRFF are not exclusively tied to the Cinema Club or the Video Group but are connected to other festivals and film in general, and therefore this enthusiasm and atmosphere present at the festival today are different, too.

JURA TROJE

Zapamatio sam trenutak kada je većinu nagrada pokupio Bojan iz Gunje pa nije uspio

ništa reći na primanje nagrade. On je to poslije obrazložio strahom od javnog nastupa, ali ja sam mislio da su ga preplavile emocije i bio sam jako dirnut. Posebno me dirnula i atmosfera na otvorenju 2011. godine kada je Zrinka Cvitešić u dugo zatvorenom Edisonu aktivističkim govorima i pozitivnom energijom "napumpala" dobro raspoloženje i želju za promjenom u dvorani bolje od ijednog političara za kojeg sam čuo!

› I remember when Bojan from Gunja won most of the awards that year and then couldn't say anything when he got on the stage. He later explained that he had stage fright but I thought he had been overcome by emotions and I was very touched by it. I was also very moved when at the 2011 opening, at the long-closed Edison cinema, actress Zrinka Cvitešić made a very inspired and activist speech that pumped up everybody with positive energy and a desire to make a change, better than any politician I've ever heard!

EMILIO ZINAJA, druga polovica tehničkog A je to tima
› the second half of the technical "disaster team"

Trenutak koji posebno pamtim je razgovor koji sam slučajno čuo na kraju prve karlovačke Revije u kojem teta Vera iskreno nekom čovjeku govori kako je ovo van svih njezinih očekivanja. Nekako me se to baš dojmilo!

› The moment I especially remember is overhearing a conversation at the end of the first festival edition in Karlovac, with "aunty" Vera [Robić-Škarica] sincerely telling somebody that it turned out better than anything she could have hoped for. Somehow that really made an impression on me!

Ima puno lijepih trenutaka na Reviji i Festivalu i bit će ih, nadam se, još, ali posebno bih izdvojio igranje skrivača na Starom gradu Dubovcu do 5 sati ujutro a u 8 sati je bio sastanak organizatora za nadolazeći festivalski dan. Najbolji team building ikada.

› There were many wonderful moments at the festival, and there will be many more, but I will like to single out the time we played hide-and-seek at the old town of Dubovac till 5 in the morning, with the 8 a.m. meeting of the organizers the next morning. Best team building ever.

U bilo kojem drugom, većem, značajnijem gradu vrijedile bi riječi – odlično za promociju grada, aktivnost mladih, još jedan značajan kulturni sadržaj na karti grada... U ovom slučaju – kulturno-urbano-ultra pozitivni spas u zadnji čas i nova nada za mlade ljude koji žele napraviti dobru stvar... town, we would say – great for the promotion of the town, encourages young people, another significant cultural event on the map of the town... But in this case – it is a cultural-urban-ultra-positive last-minute save and a new hope for the young people who want to make a difference... And for all the people with positive energy who want “something to do” in the forgotten and underprivileged, beautiful Karlovac!

KRISTINA DORIĆ, nekad voditeljica press ureda, a danas pridruženi član interventnog voda
› formerly head of press office and today a special member of the SWATT team

Svaki grad ima pojedince koji svojim idejama vole “uzdrmati” svakodnevicu, no ovo

“žuto ludilo” koje zavlada na par dana, definitivno doprinosi ne samo kulturno-edukativnom razvitku Karlovca, nego ga stavlja pri sam vrh događanja koja se moraju posjetiti u Hrvatskoj. Duh Revije i Festivala ne živi samo četiri dana u gradu, nego KKK cijele godine promiče filmske vrijednosti među mladima, a to je nešto što je najvrijednije. I možda ono najvažnije, budi u građanima Karlovca osjetljivost na prave vrijednosti, koje definitivno ne smiju postati ruševine, ne smiju stajati zaboravljeni, nego moraju ponovno postati mjesto susreta, smijanja, zaljubljivanja, tuge i veselja, mjesto dobrih filmova. Budi sjećanje na kino Edison!

› Every town has individuals whose ideas stir up the everyday life, but this “yellow madness” which takes control for a few days every year definitely contributes not only to the cultural-educational development of Karlovac, but places the event at the very top of the list of must-see events in Croatia. The spirit of the festival doesn’t only live for four days in Karlovac – Cinema Club Karlovac promotes film values among young people throughout the year, and that is the most valuable thing. And, perhaps most importantly, the festival makes the residents of Karlovac more aware of the real values, which must definitely not become ruins and get to be forgotten, but have to again become a meeting place of laughter, falling in love, sadness and happiness, a place of great films. Brings to mind Edison cinema!

She was an editor of a film programme on Channel 3 of the Croatian Radio and editor of the Croatian Film Chronicle (Hrvatski filmski ljetopis) from 1997 to 2004. Since 2002, she has worked at the Croatian Film Association as editor of a programme of several separate series of publications as well as DVD editions of anthological works of Croatian experimental, documentary and fiction film. She won the yearly Vladimir Vuković award of the Croatian Film Critics' Association for her criticism and essays published in 1996 and again in 2006. Since 2008, she has been the vice president of the Croatian Film Critics' Association and since 2008, she has also worked as an associate lecturer at the Academy of Dramatic Art in Zagreb teaching a course on film criticism.

Osvrt na selekciju

Kao i prošle godine, a možda i malko više, selekcijskoj komisiji najveći je problem bila minutaža. I to dvostruka! 210 programskih minuta činilo se prekratkim za međunarodne izabranike Four River Film Festivala, a predugim za program nacionalne Revije, dakako, ako želi biti neupadljiv ili približno kvalitetan kao i međunarodni. Problem je posve logičan, jer jedna zemlja ne može ni u ludilu proizvesti toliko filmova koliko ih je ukupno prijavljeno na FRFF, a još manje toliko kvalitetnih. No, nedvojbeno može ponuditi bisere za sjećanje, mjerljive s najboljim djelima svjetske mladeži.

Ove je godine, nalazeći se na samom vrhu popisa prijavljenih, kriterije svima podignula francuska ESMA s ponudom od desetak računalnih animacija, toliko superiorno vještih u svakom pogledu: narativnom, likovnjačkom, animacijskom, stilizacijskom itd, da nam je prije nužne i nezahvalne redukcije francuske animacijske ponude (kako bismo oslobođili mesta i za ostale zemlje i autore), trebalo istražiti pripadaju li autori tih malih animacijskih čuda doista kategoriji "mladeži", ili se pak s Karlovčanima netko neslano šali. Kada smo ustanovili da šale nema, krenuli smo da je tražiti djela koja se mogu s njima nositi, u objema selekcijama. Na sreću, našli smo ih dosta, ako ne baš među animiranim radovima ili onima malobrojnijima hibridno-eksperimentalne naravi (slobodnoga stila), a onda sigurno među ozbiljnim dokumentarcima i igranim filmovima koji i ove godine dominiraju. A to je razumljivo, jer i najstravičnija izmišljotina mladima je uvijek bila milija od najšećernije zbilje. Ono što u tim fikcijama može ugodno zastrašiti nisu više toliko živi mrtvaci i ostale horor spodobe što se iz godine u godine do iznemoglosti recikliraju na svim stranama svijeta, koliko izumiranje dijaloga kao načina komunikacije među živima, koji zamjenjuje unutrašnji monolog i voice-over u velikom broju narativnih filmova. Izvjesna doza "hermetičnosti" kao posljedica takvih izbora, obilježit će jače nego do sada oba izdanja karlovačkih festivala, koji i dalje ostaju stjecištem neiscrpne mladenačke energije, imaginacije i invencije.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

» On selecting the films

Similarly to last year, perhaps even a bit more, the selection jury's biggest problem was length. Double the length! 210 minutes of programme seemed too short for the international competition of the Four River Film Festival and too long for the Youth Film Festival programme, of course, if we want to make it consistent and match the quality of the international programme. The problem is a completely logical one, because one country simply cannot produce as many films as were entered in FRFF, let alone as many quality ones. Still, it can offer some films to remember, equally excellent as any made by young people from around the world.

This year, at the very top of the list of entered films, the bar has been raised by the French ESMA studio with about ten computer animated films so superior in every respect – narratively, visually, in animation, style, etc., that before we undertook the ungrateful task of reducing the number of French animated films (in order to leave room for other authors and countries), we first had to verify whether these animations really were made by high school kids or if someone was playing a joke on us. Once we've made sure there was no joke involved, we went on looking for films which could compete with them, in both competitions. Luckily, we found many, if not among the animated works or the few hybrid-experimental ones ("freestyle"), then definitely among the documentaries and fiction films which have been dominant this year. This is understandable since young people find even the scariest fantasy more appealing than the most sugar-coated reality. What can be pleasantly scary is no longer the living dead and other horror creatures that year after year get recycled to death everywhere around the world, as much as the loss of dialogue as a form of communication among the living, replaced by interior monologue or off-screen narration in a large number of films. A certain dose of hermetic sensation, as a result of these choices, is a marked characteristic of both festivals in Karlovac which still remain the crossroads of inexhaustible youthful energy, imagination and invention.

Osvrt na selekciju

"Poželi i ostvarit će ti se..." Re-

čenica je to iz jednog od filmova iz konkurenциje ovogodišnje Filmske revije mladeži u Karlovcu koji, kao i naslovi u konkurenциji Four River Film Festivala, dje luju poput ostvarenja najljepših želja kada je riječ o mladosti koja želi i može sve. Osobito kada je u pitanju umjetnost, i to filmska umjetnost. Na filmu je dovoljno poželjeti i štošta će se toga ostvariti. Dobro će pobijediti zlo, zabava će nadjačati dosadu, a mašta će trijumfirati nad sivilom. Mladi filmaši iz Hrvatske i svijeta, koji se zahvaljujući svojim sjajnim radovima i ove godine okupljaju u filmskom gradu na četiri rijeke, nekako su sve zrelijci, zamišljeni i odlučniji promijeniti svijet u kojem žive. Vidi se to u njihovim filmovima. Niz filmova djeluje tako zrelo i promišljeno kao da iza njih stoje autori s dvostruko ili trostruko više životnog isku stva od djevojaka i mladića koji su ih stvarali. Ili su možda današnji mladi puno zrelijci no što bi se to moglo zaključiti po godinama koje imaju? Današnji svijet sigurno nije mjesto iz bajke, ali svijet svakog od nas može postati bajkom činimo li dobro i stvaramo li dobro. Upravo takve, jako dobre, ovogodišnje su filmske zamislji i njihove realizacije u kojima uživamo ovoga rujna u Karlovcu. Zahvaljujući njima borit ćemo se protiv nepravde i netolerancije, pomagati potrebitima i nesretnima, stjecati nove prilike i prijatelje, putovati diljem našeg planeta i obližnjeg svemira, veseliti se sitnicama, baš kao i velikim stvarima, boriti se protiv vlastitih strahova i uvijek biti ponosni na ono što jesmo, te se još jednom uvjeriti da je film svemoguća čarolija. Poželimo li nešto na filmu, to će nam se ostvariti. Karlovac je u tom smislu pravi grad filmskih čarolija koje stvaraju uvijek mla di u umu i srcu.

» On selecting the films

“Make a wish and it will come true...” This is a phrase from one of the films at this year’s Youth Film Festival competition which, just like the competition of the Four River Film Festival, seems like the fulfilment of the nicest possible wishes, when it comes to young people who want everything and can do anything. Especially when it comes to art and, most of all, film art. On film, it is enough to make a wish and a lot of things will come true. Good will conquer evil, fun will overcome boredom, imagination will triumph over bleakness. Young filmmakers from Croatia and abroad, who have this year again gathered in the town by the four rivers, thanks to their work, seem to be getting more mature, contemplative and determined to change the world in which they live. This is visible in their films. Quite a number of films seem so well conceived and mature, as if they have been made by authors with twice or three times as much life experience. Or are perhaps young people today more mature than we could infer from their age? The world today is definitely not a fairy tale dreamland, and yet, the world of each one of us can become a fairy tale if we do good or create something good. This September in Karlovac we will enjoy film ideas and their realizations which are precisely that – very good. Thanks to them, we will fight injustice and intolerance, help those in need and the unfortunate, make new friends and create new opportunities, travel all over our planet and the space around it, find joy in little things just as much as in big ones, fight our own fears and always be proud of who we are, and once again come to believe that film is possessed of supreme magic. If we make a wish on film, it will come true. Karlovac is in that sense a town of real film magic created by those always young at heart and mind.

Osvrt na selekciju

Pred vama je još jedan pregleđ najboljih filmova prijavljenih na domaću reviju i međunarodni festival. Sami ćete donijeti svoje zaključke i ocjene, a mi, selektori, dali smo vam svoja mišljenja koja nisu točna niti netočna; to su samo neke misli koje su nam potaknuli pregledani filmovi. Osobno sam se trudio držati prvog dojma, kojeg smatram najvažnijim upravo na ovome mjestu – na festivalu, gdje publika i žiri isto tako gledaju film u gomili drugih filmova i nemaju puno vremena za drugi dojam.

Osjećaj gledanja i ocjenjivanja filmova ove mi je godine bio puno drugačiji nego prošle, kada sam to prvi put imao priliku i čast raditi. Od početka sam bio strog, kritičan i sumnjičav, primjećivao sam i pratilo napredak i pad pojedinih autora i klubova. Pitanja koja su mi se uporno motala po glavi dok sam gledao 300-tinjak prijavljenih filmova katkad su izazivala grč u želuci, ali možda jednom i pronađemo odgovor. Kako to da neki manji klubovi koji su prošle godine nakon radionica imali 4-5 izvrsnih filmova, ove godine nisu imali niti jedan film ili niti jedan dobar film? Može li se dogoditi da nakon tako visoko postavljene letvice baš nitko ne snima godinu dana? Ako su ti ljudi otišli dalje i prerasli srednjoš-kolski film, gdje je podmladak?

Kako zaustaviti mentore koji imaju prevelik autorski utjecaj na film i kako to uopće kontrolirati? Neki mentorи su upisani kao snimatelji u odjavnoј špici, za što možemo reći da je fer, ali možemo li film koji je baziran isključivo na sigurnoj ruci kamermana mentora nazvati srednjoškolskim filmom? Što je s voditeljima montažerima koji su jako česta pojava? Što je s onim filmovima u kojima takav utjecaj ne piše na odjavnoј špici nego ga čujemo iz raznih kanala tek puno kasnije? Što misliti o voditeljima koji zapravo svoj film prijavljuju pod tinejdžerski, možda čak dobivaju nagrade za to?

Što je kratki dokumentarni film i koliko ga dugo treba snimati? Na ovom festivalu imamo razne primjere, dobre i loše, a glavni je problem što ima stvarno malo dokumentaraca. Gdje ne staju izvrsni animatori s dječjih revija? Gdje su ti nekad talentirani osnovnoškolci? Zašto prestaju raditi? Gdje su izvrsni vukovarski dokumentaristi ili hi-tech Istrijani od lani? Gdje su oni od kojih smo očekivali progres prije godinu dana, a sada nisu prijavitli ništa?

Vidjeli smo i puno neoštirih kadrava. To znači i da su mladi filmaši prešli na manualni način rada, ali i da ga nisu baš savladali... Vidjeli smo i blokove radio-ničkih filmova snimljenih ispred iste kuće, s glumcima u istim majicama... Vidjeli smo i jako djetinjaste filmove i preozbiljne filmove, vidjeli smo filmove na razini vica i jednog dana snimanja, a vidjeli smo i one filmove zbog kojih se sve ovo isplati. Uživajte!

› On selecting the films

You have before you another overview of the best works entered for the YFF and FRFF. You will reach your own conclusions and make your own evaluations, while we have given you our opinions, neither correct nor incorrect; they are just some of the impressions generated while seeing the films. Personally, I have tried to stick to the first impression which I consider the most important precisely here, at the festival, where the audience and the jury see them among a multitude of others and do not have a lot of time to assess them.

The experience of seeing and evaluating the films this year was drastically different from the last year when I had the opportunity and honour to do it for the first time. From the start I was strict, critical and suspicious and I noticed and followed the improvement or decline of certain authors and clubs. What I kept wondering while I watched about 300 entered films sometimes made me worry, but perhaps we will find out the answer to those questions some day. How come that some of the "smaller" clubs, which last year after workshops produced 4 or 5 excellent films, this year did not enter a single film or a single good one? Is it possible that after setting the bar so high, nobody made any films for a whole year? If these people have moved on and outgrown high school film, where are their successors?

How to stop mentors who have too much influence on the film and how to control this in the first place? Some mentors appear as cinematographers on the films' credits, which is fair to an extent, but can a film based on the steady hand of the mentor as cinematographer even be called a high school film? What about mentors who are often editors of these films? What about the films in which this influence is not visible in the credits but is found out only much later? What to make of mentors who enter their own film as high school film and maybe even receive awards for it?

What is a short documentary film and how long should it take to make it? This year there are different versions of it, both good and bad, but the main problem is that there are really few documentaries. What has happened to the great animators from children's festivals? Where are those once talented primary school kids? Why do they stop making films? Where are the last year's excellent documentary filmmakers from Vukovar and the hi-tech kids from Istria? Where are those from whom we expected to see progress in the last year but who did not enter any films?

We have also seen many shots with poor sharpness – it means the young filmmakers have switched to manual shooting but they have not quite mastered it yet... We have seen blocks of workshop films shot in front of the same house with actors wearing the same T-shirts... We have seen very immature films and overly serious films, films at the level of a joke and one day worth of shooting and we have seen the films which make all of this worth the while. So - enjoy it!

Aleksandra Szymanska, filmska i TV producentica rođena je 1976. godine u Katowicama u Poljskoj, gdje je završila Filmsku školu "Krzysztof Kieslowski", smjer filmske i TV produkcije. U Njemačku se seli 2001. godine gdje i danas živi i radi u Kolnu.

Na početku profesionalne karijere radila je prvenstveno producentske poslove na poljskim televizijama: TVP Varšava, Canal+ Poljska... Dolaskom u Njemačku počela je surađivati i s ARD-om, ZDF-om... U kontekstu velikih događanja bila je jedan od izvršnih producenata prijenosa Eura 2012 u Poljskoj, kao i producent u okviru IBC-a za EXPO 2000.

2010. godine pokreće malu nezavisnu produkcijsku kuću Homo Ludens Pictures, koja na godišnjoj dodjeli nagrada ponajboljim akterima AV industrije biva proglašena najboljom novosnovanom produkcijskom kuću u sjevernorajnskom-vestfalskom području. U okviru vlastite produkcijske kuće trenutačno radi na tri projekta: "Vrt misli", 90-minutnom dokumentarcu u koprodukciji s WDR-om koji je u preprodukcijskoj fazi, "Lilith", kratkom igranom filmu koji je u fazi postprodukcije, te nedavno završenom kratkom eksperimentalnom filmu "Veze" koji je u fazi distribucije.

› Aleksandra Szymanska is a film and TV producer, born in 1976, in Katowice, Poland, where she graduated in Film and TV Production from the "Krzysztof Kieslowski" Film School. In 2001 she moved to Germany and has since lived and worked in Cologne.

At the beginning of her professional career she mostly did production work for different Polish TV stations: TVP Warsaw, Canal+ Poland, etc. and after coming to Germany, she also started collaborating with ARD, ZGF, etc. She was one of the producers of the Euro 2012 transmission in Poland, as well as a producer within IBC (International Broadcast Centre) EXPO 2000.

In 2010, she started her own small independent production house called Homo Ludens Pictures, which won the AV Gründzentrum Prize for best newcomer in North Rhine-Westphalia. Within her own production house she is currently working on three projects: "Garden of Thoughts", a 90-minute documentary in co-production with WDR, currently in the preproduction phase, "Lilith", a short fiction film in postproduction, and the recently completed experimental film "Relationships" currently in distribution phase.

ALEKSANDRA SZYMANSKA

NAGRADA ZA DOPRINOS NENASILJU NA FILMU ŽUTA ZASTAVA

Žuta boja simbolizira puno toga. Ona znači radost, energiju, odanost, plemenitost i napredak. Žuto nas uvijek asocira na Sunce, kao i na djetinju zaigranost i veselje. No, žuta boja znači i oprez te poticaj da se o nečemu razmisli i donese odluka. Treću godinu redom na Filmskoj reviji mladeži i Four River Film Festivalu u Karlovcu nagrada Žuta zastava poziva sve mlade filmaše da svojim radovima daju doprinos nenasilju na filmu. Žuta zastava je nagrada koju će i ovoga rujna dobiti autori filmova iz Hrvatske i svijeta koji svojim temama, pričama i junacima najuspješnije progovaraju o nasilju kao o velikom društvenom zlu, osobito među mlađim naraštajima. Nasilje, na žalost, može biti svuda oko nas: u školskim klupama i hodnicima, na ulicama, među vršnjacima, u obiteljima, među bliskim osobama... Također, čini se da u svijetu ne prođe niti jedan trenutak bez nasilja, oružanih obračuna i ratova. Ljudi su nasilni prema drugim ljudima, kao i prema okolini i prirodi u kojoj žive. Mladi filmaši o svemu tome govore kroz svoje radove. Na snažan i uvjerljiv način. Koji će od ovogodišnjih filmova na Reviji i Festivalu dobiti Žutu zastavu kao nagradu za doprinos nenasilju na filmu, odlučit će tročlanici ocjenjivački sud sastavljen od troje darovitih i uspješnih srednjoškolaca: Katarina, Filip i Sara. Nagradu Žuta zastava medijski predstavlja emisija o filmu za djecu i mlađe Kokice, u proizvodnji Hrvatske televizije, koja već jedanaestu sezonu promiče filmsko stvaralaštvo djece i mlađih iz Hrvatske i svijeta, filmsku kulturu te nove i klasične filmove namijenjene mlađim filmoljupcima. O nasilju na filmu govorit će se i na debati: Treba li filmove u kinima označiti predikatima s obzirom na sadržaj?

Naime, mnogobrojni filmovi koje gledamo u kinima i na televiziji puni su prizora nasilja pri čemu se stalno postavlja pitanje potiče li nasilje na filmu nasilje u stvarnosti - poglavito među mlađima. O tome su prošle godine na iznimno živ i uvjerljiv način raspravljali mlađi filmaši u Karlovcu, dok će ove godine na novoj tribini raspravljati o tome treba li filmove u kinima označiti predikatima s obzirom na njihov sadržaj. I dok niz zemalja u svijetu, primjerice SAD, strogo regulira koji su kinofilmovi s obzirom na sadržaj prikladni za pojedine dobne skupine djece i mlađih, u Hrvatskoj je takva predikatizacija praksa samo za televizijske sadržaje. Treba li, stoga, i filmove koji se prikazuju u hrvatskim kinima vrednovati predikatima s obzirom na količinu nasilja i ostalih sadržaja koji nisu prikladni za maloljetnike. I ovogodišnja je debata koncipirana kao rasprava dviju skupina mlađih koji će s različitim pozicijama i uz iznošenje vlastitih argumenata odgovoriti na središnje pitanje. Njihova razmjena mišljenja te stavovi odraslih sudionika debate iz javnog života pomoći će tročlanom ocjenjivačkom sudu da u konačnici donese sud o tome treba li i u Hrvatskoj gledanje pojedinih filmova u kinima ograničiti na pojedine dobne skupine, odnosno gledanje filmova djece vezati uz pratnju roditelja i odraslih. Debatu će moći pratiti svi sudionici ovogodišnje Revije i Festiva-

la, a svi jedva čekamo čuti tko će biti uvjerljiviji. Žuta zastava opet simbolizira ono najbolje.

Boško Picula

› Yellow symbolizes a lot of things. It signifies joy, energy, loyalty, nobleness and progress. Yellow always reminds us of the Sun and of the childlike playfulness and bliss. But yellow also stands for caution and the need to evaluate something and reach a decision. For the third year in a row, the Yellow Flag award of the Youth Film Festival and the Four River Film Festival invites all the young filmmakers to make a contribution to nonviolence through their films. The Yellow Flag will this year once again be awarded to the authors whose films, through their themes, stories and characters, most successfully speak out against violence as a great affliction of our society, especially among young generations. Violence can, unfortunately, be found in all spheres of life; at school, on the streets, among the peers, in the family, among those close to us. Also, it seems that not a moment in the world goes by without violence, armed conflict and wars. People are violent to each other and to the environment which they inhabit. Young filmmakers speak out about all this through their films in a powerful and convincing way. Which of the films in the YFF and FRFF competitions will receive the Yellow Flag will be decided by a jury of three talented and successful high school students: Katarina, Filip and Sara. The Yellow Flag award is supported in the media by the TV show Kokice, produced by the Croatian Radiotelevision, which has promoted film, creativity and film culture, as well as new films and classics for young audiences for eleven seasons running. Violence on film will also be the topic of the debate: Should films in the cinema be rated based on their content?

The fact that numerous films screened on television or cinema are full of scenes of violence raises the question whether violence on film encourages violence in real life, especially among young people. Last year, young people in Karlovac held a very lively and convincing debate on this topic, while at this year's new debate, they will discuss whether films in the cinema need to be rated based on their content. While a series of countries in the world, for instance the USA, strictly regulate which films in the cinema are appropriate for which audience age groups, considering their content, in Croatia this sort of categorization is applied only to television content. Should, therefore, films screened in Croatian cinemas also receive a rating based on the amount of violence and other content unsuitable for minors? This debate is also conceived as a discussion of two groups of young people who will, from different points of view and by expressing their own arguments, try to answer this central question. Their exchange of opinions, as well as the attitudes of renowned people from public life, will help a three-member panel reach a conclusion whether the viewing of certain films in Croatia should be limited to certain age groups, that is, whether children should have to see particular films accompanied by adults. All the participants in the YFF and FRFF will be able to participate as observers in the debate and we can't wait to see which side presents a more compelling argument. The yellow flag again symbolizes what is best.

Zagrebačka škola crtanog filma ima svoje nasljednike u mladim animatorima iz Osijeka koji, kao i njihovi slavni prethodnici, na najbolji način koriste moto "manje je više". Jednostavnost je vrлина samo ako iza nje stoji sadržajnost kao što je to ovdje slučaj. Poigravanje prostorom, pokretom, bojom i glazbom realizirano je na optimalan način.

› The Zagreb school of animation has its followers in these young authors from Osijek who, just like their famous predecessors, use the motto "less is more" in the best possible way. The simplicity is a virtue only if it is backed by substance, which is the case here. Playfulness with space, movement, colour and music is shown in the best possible way.

Diana Nenadić

Na tragu "dragičevskih" animacija, crtič pripovijeda o nevolji jajolikog bića koje je htjelo postati nešto više ili nešto drugo. Crtež je jednostavan i funkcionalan, a animacija precizna. Jedino je glazba upitna. Bilo bi možda bolje da je crtež ozvučen šumovima i efektima.

› Along the lines of Nedeljko Dragić's animation, this animated film tells the story of the woes of an egg-like being who wants to become something more or something else. The drawing is simple and functional and the animation precise. Only the music is questionable; perhaps it would be better if the drawing was accompanied by sounds and effects.

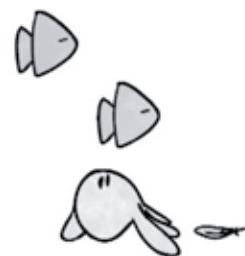

Jura Troje

Simpatična animacija, igranje s prostorom, linijom, prava suština animacije. Sami su postigli ono što su prikazali u crtiču, izašli su iz okvira, iz stola, layera, prozora...

› A likeable animation, experimenting with space and lines, the very essence of animation. They have themselves achieved what they wanted to express in the film - they stepped outside the frames, the desk, the layers, the window...

Evo jedne lijepе bajke, jednako tako lijepо ispričane kroz kolažnu animaciju kontrastnog crteža likova i njihove pozadine. Veoma dobar spoj onoga što se vidi i onoga što se čuje pri čemu je priča o tri sestre, ocu i čudovištu domišljata kompilacija niza poznatih bajka. Malo više zvučnog dizajna i ponekog vizualnog iznenadeњa, i sve bi bilo još i bolje.

Here is a nice fairy tale, wonderfully told through collage animation of contrastive drawings of characters and their backgrounds. A very nice blend of what is seen and what is heard, where the story of the three sisters, their father and a monster is an inventive compilation of known fairy tales. A bit more sound design and a few visual surprises would make it even better.

Diana Nenadić

Grafički vrlo zanimljiva kolažna animacija s pričom o trgovcu i željama njegove tri kćeri, osobito najmlađe i najskromnije. Animacija je reducirana, ali efektna, a film bi sigurno bio još bolji da neumorna pripovjedača katkada zamijeni kakav zvučni efekt.

A graphically very interesting collage animation of the story of the merchant and his three daughters' wishes, especially those of the youngest and most modest one. The animation is minimalist but effective, and the film would be even better if the tireless narrator were sometimes replaced by a sound effect or two.

Jura Troje

Napeta, dinamična, pomalo morbidna i poprilično zabavna bajka. Jednostavna animacija i likovi, šablonska radnja, ali sve zajedno je smiksano u jako, jako simpatičan film!

A fairytale that is intense, dynamic, slightly morbid and a lot of fun. Simple animation and characters and a conventional plot, but everything is very nicely put together into a very, very likeable film!

› Are your schools clean? If not, watch out, because paper and garbage from the trash can could materialize into a big worm terrorizing the school and its students.

Boško Picula

Ne održavate li svoju školu čistom, postoji opasnost da školskim hodnikom protutnji domaća inačica aliena, odnosno zmijoliko biće zagonetnih namjera. Dijelom igrani, a dijelom animirani film, ovaj uradak mlađih Splitčana zanimljiviji je u drugoj polovici kada dolazi do izražaja stop-animacija, ali upravo toj polovici nedostaje klimaks. Šteta.

› If your school is not clean, you run a risk of a home-grown version of alien or a snake-like creature of mysterious intentions raiding its hallways. Part live action, part animation, the work of young filmmakers from Split is interesting in the second half of the film featuring stop-animation, but it's a shame this part also lacks more of a climax.

Diana Nenadić

Animacija o školskoj higijeni s oslobođenim bacilom, oblikovanim od odbačenog papira, koji slobodno šeće školom,obilazi učionice i ostale prostorije. Nepretenciozno, vješto i simpatično.

› An animated film about school hygiene in which a "liberated" germ, made of thrown away paper, roams the classrooms and other school facilities. Unpretentious, skilful and cute.

Jura Troje

Hm, prvi dojam - spermčić putuje po školi i dođe do skulpture 2012. Nisam baš shvatio vezu s čistocem u školi. Nikako se oduprijeti misli da je to snimljeno u jednom školskom satu. Vrlo moguće, s obzirom na to da je profesor potpisana kao snimatelj u odjavnoj špici, scena je vrlo nezahtjevan školski hodnik, a nije ni tako puno kadrova snimljeno.

› Hm, the first thought that comes to mind is of a sperm travelling around the school and reaching a statue of 2012... I don't really see the connection to cleanliness. I can't resist the impression that the film was shot during one school lesson. Very possibly it was, because the teacher is also listed as the cinematographer on the credits. The setting is simple - the school hallway, and there are not that many shots, either...

Boško Picula

Živi i pusti živjeti, inače... Što se događa u suprotnom, na primjeru različitih naraštaja i različitih glazbenih ukusa, prikazala je u svom filmu mlada varaždinska animatorica, otpočetka čvrsto vodeći priču prepoznatljivog crteža i gegova. Možda bi se cijelina bolje zaokružila suptilnijim raspletom, ali je i ovako riječ o uratku za preporuku.

› Live and let live, or else... In this film the young animation artist from Varaždin shows us what happens if we don't, and she guides the story firmly throughout the film. Characteristic drawing style and gags. Perhaps the film would be better rounded with a more subtle ending, but even so, it deserves every recommendation.

Diana Nenadić

Poznata je netrpeljivost odraslih prema glazbi svoje djece, a vrede i dakako i obrnuto. Čangrizavac s kravatom u ovom je crtici kažnen za netrpeljivost tako što ga usiše ljevkasti zvučnik starinskog gramofona dok sluša svoju omiljenu klasiku. No, taj je dio crtice ujedno i najlošije izveden.

› It is a well-known fact that adults dislike their children's music and vice versa. The grumpy man wearing a tie in this cartoon is "punished" for his intolerance by being sucked up by the cone-shaped speaker of an antique phonograph while listening to his favourite classical music piece. However, this part of the film is also less successful than the rest.

Jura Troje

Super animacija s flora likovima, vrlo jednostavnom, ali i završenom pričom. Crno bijelo prikazan sukob generacija, gdje, kako to često i završi, one zločestije i moćnije proguta njihovo vlastito uvjerenje.

› A great animation with cool characters, a very simple yet a well-rounded story. A monochromatic conflict between generations in which, as it often happens, the bad and powerful ones are swallowed up by their own convictions.

› This stop-animation about man's first attempt to catch air, definitely comes close to gravity in the film's title.

Boško Picula

Kao da se i slikom vraća u vreme prvih čovjekovih pokušaja savladanja tehnike letenja, film, koristeći tople boje i notu humanosti prema svim sličnim entuzijastima, ostavlja više nego dobar dojam. U prvom redu, crtežem, režijom i konceptom. Ovdje je gravitacija u službi umjetnosti.

In the first place, through drawing, directing and the concept. Here, gravity is in the service of art.

Diana Nenadić

Ikarovsko natezanje sa silom gravitacije dobilo je još jedno upriorenje u ovom filmu rustična stila i reducirane animacije, ali s maštotivim varijacijama pokušaja letenja.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Ovaj film je zapravo putovanje slikarskim platnom. Neobično i intenzivno putovanje.

› The film is in fact a journey through a painter's canvas. An unusual and intense journey.

Boško Picula

Jedan od najboljih uradaka ove godišnje konkurencije, majstorska je 3D animirana priča o restauratorici koja uđe u svijet slike koju obnavlja, otkrivši ondje da su stvarnost i mašta često dio istog kontinuuma. U filmu po-djednako oduševljava rafinirana različitost u crtežu dvaju svjetova iz priče te njena struktura s fatalističkom završnicom.

› One of the best films in this year's competition is a masterful 3D animated story about an art restorer who enters the world of the painting she is working on and there discovers that reality and fantasy are often two parts of the same continuum. Equally thrilling are the refined diversity of the drawing of the two worlds and the story's structure with a fatalist ending.

Diana Nenadić

Gotovo svako slikarsko platno skriva neku tajnu. Protagonistica ove fascinantne animacije u retro-stilu zagrebla je jedno takvo platno i u (povjesnom) pejsažu naišla na vlastiti lik. Susret › Almost every canvas conceals a secret. The protagonist of this fascinating animation in retro style has scraped below the surface of such a canvas and in the (subconscious) landscape encountered her own character. The encounter with the unknown was terribly exciting and the film mesmerizingly beautiful and precisely executed.

Jura Troje

Realne animacije s ljudima rijetko ispadaju izvrsno, ali ekipa iz ESMA-e nivo svoje animacije jednostavno i stručno podiže puno više nego što smo mogli očekivati.

Da realistični filmski prikazi problema ovisnosti ne moraju uvijek biti dokumentarni ili igrani filmovi, dokazuje ovaj crno-bijeli animirani film čiji titrajući crtež vrhunski korespondira sa stanjima glavnoga lika. I dok je on trebao drogu kako bi promijenio način na koji se osjeća, u filmu ne treba mijenjati ništa jer je dojamljiv, autentičan i rezak.

That realistic renderings of addiction-related problems do not always have to be documentary or live-action, proves this black and white animated film whose flickering drawing perfectly corresponds to the states of the main character. And while he needs drugs in order to change how he feels, the film doesn't need to change a thing because it is impressive, authentic and bitter-sweet.

Diana Nenadić

Audio-ispovijed bivšeg ovisnika o njegovu životu u lošem bračku i s lošim navikama neupitno je dokumentaristički autentična, a crno-bijeli crtež primjeren je

The audio-confession of a former addict about his life in a bad marriage and bad habits is undoubtedly authentic in a documentary way, which the black and white drawing fittingly illustrates: it shows everything that the spoken word withholds.

Jura Troje

› This is a story about the 50th anniversary of man's first flight to space. Using a funny format, the film relates the events during that first flight and compares them to the current situation in space.

Boško Picula

Mladi ne bi bili mlađi kada i najvećim postignućima u ljudskoj povijesti ne bi dodali nečega sroga. Tako je i ovdje spojen epohalni događaj, mitološki zmaj i znanstveno-fantastični proseđe. Doda li se tomu i ironiziranje sveprisutnim zakonitostima tržišta, evo vesele priče o prošlosti, sadašnjosti i budućnosti.

› Young people wouldn't be young people if they didn't add something of their own even to the greatest achievements in world history. This animation brings together crucial historic events, a mythological dragon and science fiction procedures. If we also add an ironic take on the omnipresent laws of the market, we get a cheerful story about the past, the present and the future.

Diana Nenadić

Iako film na simpatičan način uspoređuje današnji svemir napućen satelitima s onim nevinim svemirom u vrijeme Gagarinova leta, crtež mu je još nesiguran, a animacija prilično početnička.

› Although the film in a fun way compares today's satellite-populated space with the innocent space in the time of Gagarin's flight, however, the drawing is still a bit insecure and the animation quite beginner-like.

Jura Troje

Lijepa posveta prvom čovjeku u svemiru, prigodno zbog ovogodišnje velike obljetnice. Zanimljivo je kako se ipak i danas, u vrijeme općeg konzumerizma, materijalizma i gomilama potrošne robe, divimo herojima koji su u nečemu bili prvi, izabrani ili jednostavno simboli! To su ipak one rijetke stvari koje se ne mogu kupiti!

Negdje na tragu estetike velikana češke i svjetske animacije Jana Švankmajera, ovaj je, kako sam naslov filma sugerira, britko režiran uradak u samo jednom kadrnu na samo jednom licu izrekao tako puno. Brijanje može biti itekako uzbudljivo ako je oštrica u spretnim rukama. Brijачevim ili redateljevim, svejedno.

As the title suggests, this sharply directed film along the aesthetic lines of the legend of Czech and international animation, Jan Švankmajer, though only one shot long, reads the story from just one face. Shaving can be a very exciting experience if the blade is in the hands of an expert. Those of the barber or the director, respectively.

Diana Nenadić

Animirati lice plastelinskog modela iznimno je teška zadaća, osobito ako je mimika jedino sredstvo izražavanja animiranoga lika. Ipak, protagonist ovog filma, starac u posjetu brijajuću, dobio je zanimljiv portret s efektivnim promjenama raspoloženja i preobrazbama lica.

It is extremely hard to animate the face of a plasticine model, especially if the facial expressions are the animated character's only form of expression. However, the film's protagonist, an old man visiting a barber, is given an interesting portrait with effective mood changes and facial metamorphoses.

Boško Picula

Može li se promijeniti sADBINA ili barem prevladati nesanica? Mlađa autorica ovog pričom i stilom deprimantnog uratka dosljedno gradi fatalistički zaplet o nedostatku sna i smisla, ali se na kraju mladenački okreće vedrijem izlazu i raspletu. Teška tema i jednako takvi pokreti u stop-animaciji stvaraju pravu atmosferu, ali bi rafiniranost bila dobrodošao začin svemu.

› Can one change one's destiny or at least overcome insomnia? The young author of this film with a gloomy story and style consistently builds a fatalist plot about sleep deprivation and lack of meaning, but in the end she youthfully turns towards a more cheerful ending and way out. A heavy topic with equally heavy movements in stop-animation create a real atmosphere but the film could be a bit more refined.

Diana Nenadić

Kafkijanska priča o pismu koje sanjari pred televizorom, realizirana animacijom modela. Film na

Sreća je relativna stvar ovisno o tome tko je kako definira. Za autore filma prava je sreća biti podalje od urbanog kaosa i uživati u netaknutoj prirodi Afrike. Baš takva "prirodna" animacija prati ovu dopadljivu kratku priču-pokusku, ali je i realizacija nekako relativna. Nedostaje joj više žaoka i odgovora na njih.

› Of course happiness is relative, depending on who defines it. For the authors of this film, the real happiness is being away from the urban chaos and savouring the intact nature of Africa. Just this sort of "natural" animation follows this likeable short story-moral, but the execution is also a bit relative. It needs more questions and answers to them.

Diana Nenadić

Gdje je život sretniji: u divljini džungle ili u džungli na asfaltu? Autori ovoga filma očigledno su skloniji divljini. Animacija nije urnebesna, ali je priča izložena jasno i sažeto uz funkcionalna ponavljanja.

Boško Picula

Stop animacija s umiljatom mačkom koja sve nervoznije pokušava privući pozornost spavalice koja ju čuva, dopadljiv je skeč čija je vizualizacija u svojoj neučrednosti veoma šarmantna. No, filmu nedostaje više transformacija do završnog rješenja koje je također trebalo biti razrađenije u duhu svog izvornika.

› Stop-animation featuring a cute cat that becomes more and more anxious trying to catch the attention of its sleepy keeper, is a likeable sketch whose visualisation is very charming in its sloppiness. But the film needs more transformations until the final solution, which should also be more developed following the spirit of its original.

Diana Nenadić

Animacija modela s jednom mačkom koja uzaludno pokušava probuditi svoga gospodara. Umjesto poente, film daje zločest savjet za takve slučajeve, jer mjaukanje i mahanje repom koje, zahvaljujući animaciji, plastelinskoj mački daje mačkolikost, ne pomaže.

› A model animation featuring a cat vainly trying to wake up its keeper. But instead of the point, the film gives a mean piece of advice for such situations, because the meowing and tail-wagging which, thanks to animation, gives the plasticine kitty its cat-like appearance, does not seem to help.

Jura Troje

Kao što se Suzanne pronašla u animaciji Simon's cat, tako je i moj komentar, moram priznati, bio: "O da, ovo mi je poznato!" Zabavna mala animacija, možemo reći napravljena prema predlošku, zabava za vlasnike mačaka!

Tko swinga, zlo ne misli! Zaključak je to dojmljivo stilizirane i ciklički organizirane animirane priče o namrgodenom i rasistički "nabrijanom" brijaču, kojemu je ulična svirka obojenog trubača rastjerala netolerantne misli. Film plijeni ambijentima, efektnim mizanscenskim rješenjima, uporabom zvuka i, dakako, swingom.

› There is no harm in swing!

Boško Picula

Prava glazba i ritam mijenjaju sve, pa i okoštali rasizam. Odlična 3D animacija razvija se kroz priču o brijaču kojega drugačija glazba i samog učini drukčijim. Konkretno, neusporedivo boljim. Ponešto težičan, film je i dalje iznadprosječan u svemu.

› Great music and rhythm can change everything, even entrenched racism. Excellent 3D animation follows the story of a barber who becomes a whole different man - far better and more substantial - after listening to different music. A tad theoretical, this film still ranges far above average in every aspect.

Jura Troje
Predivan, prekrasan, čudesan film! Tako detaljan, tako povezan i isprepleten s glazbom, čija čarolija čini i glavnu temu ovog filma. Je li ovim vrhunskim animacijama iz ESMA-e uopće mjesto ovdje? Te filmove svakako treba pogledati u Karlovcu, ali je li to fair prema festivalu amaterskih filmova?

That is the conclusion of this impressively stylized and cyclically organized animated story about a grumpy and racist barber whose intolerant thoughts are dispelled by the street music of a coloured trumped player. The film is very attractive for the ambiances, effective mis-en-scene solutions, the use of sound and of course – the swing.

› A beautiful, gorgeous, amazing film! So detailed, so connected and intertwined with music and its magic, which are the main protagonists in the film. Edukativno na uvjerljiv način, iako kao zaplet viđeno niz puta. No, izvornost filmu podaruje vrckava 3D animacija prepoznatljiva hongkonška rukopisa.

› She wears a red hat but she's not Little Red Riding Hood. She is the protagonist of a tender story about a girl who, in saving a little bird, earns similar treatment. Educational in a convincing way, even though the plot has been seen many times before. What gives the film its excellence is the lively 3D animation with a recognizable Hong Kong signature.

Diana Nenadić

Ova računalna animacija ima naivnu dječju priču i jasnú poruku, a šumovima i pratećom glazbom održava mladenačku vedrinu i popravlja opći dojam.

› This computer animation possesses a naïve story and a clear message, and the noises and accompanying music give it youthful cheerfulness and make it better.

Jura Troje

Nije mi previše drag stil animacije, ali izgleda lijepo. Ne svida mi se šumovi, koji nalikuju na stare video igrice, radnja je potpuno banalizirana, ali film je u cijelosti nekako simpatičan.

› This is not my favourite animation style but it looks nice. I don't like the noises, it resembles old video games, the plot is pretty banal but the film on the whole is nice...

Fresh film festival, Irska › Ireland

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Ovo djelo je svojevrsni 12-minutni prikaz velikih prosvjeda koji su se događali 2011. godine po cijelome svijetu. Bila je to godina revolucija, kako lokalnih, tako i globalnih.

› A 12-minute representation of the great protests that occurred in 2011 all over the world. It was a year of the revolution - both locally and globally.

Boško Picula

Dokumentarno-reportažni prikaz u mnogo čemu revolucionarne 2011. godine dinamično je spajanje postojećih televizijskih snimaka s izjavama sugrađana mlađih irskih filmaša. Taj koncept "gledj globalno, misli lokalno" najveća je vrijednost ovoga uratka koji unatoč korištenju već viđenog materijala ne ostavlja dojam ponavljanja. Jasno i upečatljivo.

› This report documentary of the, in many ways, revolutionary 2011 is a dynamic combination of existing TV footage and statements of the young Irish filmmakers' compatriots. The concept of "look locally, think globally" is this film's greatest value. Despite using already-seen footage, it doesn't leave the impression of repetition. Clear and memorable.

Diana Nenadić

Dokumentarna kompilacija arhivske grude s uzavrelim točaka globusa uspijeva stvoriti dojam da je svijet 2011. godine gorio zbog ekonomski krize, etničkih sukoba i hegemonije svjetskih banaka. Film je informativan, di-namičan, ali mjestimice i kakofo- ničan, jer se zbog bučne prateće glazbe ne čuje što intervjuirani ljudi govore.

› This documentary compilation of archive footage from critical points of the world, manages to create the impression that the world was "on fire" in 2011 because of economic crises, ethnic conflicts and world banks' domination. Informative, dynamic, but in places a bit cacophonous because the noisy background music makes it hard to hear the interviewees.

Jura Troje

Jako mi je drago što autor priču ne zaključuje svojim mišljenjem nego pušta gledatelja da stvari vlastito. Montaža je odlična, film prenosi poruku, potiče na pitanja i unutrašnji monolog.

› I'm very glad the authors don't end the story with their opinion but let the viewers create their own. The editing is great, the film transmits the message and encourages one to wonder and creates an interior monologue...

BOLJE OD DROGE

Echoes of Substance Abuse

66

Boško Picula

Ovdje su autori filma i prije prvega kadra napravili pola posla jer su pronašli veoma zahvalne sugovornike kada je riječ o poštastim konzumiranjima narkotika te posljedica i liječenja ovisnosti. No, izjave sugovornika teku bez pravog ritma i smjera te se film ubrzano nađe u kolotečini koja otupljuje oštrinu teme. Film je više jeka onoga što je mogao biti.

Even before the first shot was made, the authors of the film did half the work by finding these interesting interlocutors to speak out about the menace of using drugs, its consequences and the treatment of addiction. However, the interviews flow without proper rhythm and direction and the film soon finds itself in a rut which dulls the sharpness of the topic. The film is more of an echo of what it could have been.

Diana Nenadić

Poučan, ali metodološki kolebljiv dokumentarac o posljedama zlorabe droga, realiziran kombinacijom intervjuja s bivšim ovisnicima i liječnicima, ilustra-tivnih pasaža iz narko-svakodnevice te dokumentarnih zapisa iz glazbenog života ovisnika koji se očistio.

› An instructive but methodologically unbalanced documentary which combines interviews with ex-addicts and doctors, telling passages from the drug abuse-related daily life and documentary footage from the life of a musician who got clean.

Jura Troje

Dosadnjikav dokumentarac sveden na izjave u krupnom planu i par rekonstrukcija... Nije loše čuti te priče, ali kao film to nije blistavo djelce.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

U nazivu filma riječ "nam" je množina koja označava 11 članova obitelji Valentić iz slavonskog sela Račinovci. Mama Josipa ima nevjerljivu snagu i veliki optimizam. Ona želi samo jedno: da im bude dobro.

› In the title, "us" stands for the 11 members of the Valentić family from the Slavonian village of Račinovci. The mom, Josipa, has incredible energy and great optimism and she wishes for just one thing, that they all be well.

Boško Picula

Gotovo svaki film nastao u Studioju kreativnih ideja Gunja osvaja svojim životnim optimizmom. Ovdje je riječ o iznimno teškim životnim uvjetima mnogočlane obitelji iz sela Račinovci. Pa ipak, cijeli je film mudro postavljena i vođena oda životu i borbi za nje-ga. "Majka hrabrost" ove obitelji među najdobjljivijim je likovima ovogodišnjih Revije i Festivala.

› Almost every film made at the Studio of Creative Ideas Gunja possesses great optimism. This is a story about extremely difficult life conditions of a family from the village Račinovci, yet the film is a wisely told ode to life and its strug-gles. The "Mother Courage" of this family is one of the most im-pressive characters in this year's selection of films in the festival.

Diana Nenadić

U socijalno angažiranom dokumentaru o siromašnoj i mno-gočlanoj obitelji s uglavnom ženskom djecom, najživotniji i najrječitiji su prizori snimljeni u njihovu domu: zajednički objedi i aktivnosti, razgovori za stolom i slično. Kao i u televizijskim doku-mentarcima, dojam kvare koje-kakvi činovnici snimljeni meto-dom "kruškom pod njušku" (iako se "kruška" ne vidi).

› In the socially engaged docu-mentary about a poor large fam-ily with mostly female children, the most memorable and elo-quent scenes were shot in their home: meals together and joint ac-tivities, conversations etc. As in TV documentaries, the im-pression is spoiled by the so-called "clerks" shot with the mi-crophone in the face (though the microphone is not visible).

Jura Troje

Mnogobrojna obitelj, neimašti-na, škola, problemi... Klasičan so-cijalni dokumentarac iz gunjske škole. Lijepo je vidjeti kako se lju-di međusobno vole makar izgle-dalo kao da se cijeli svijet urotio protiv njih.

Boško Picula

Priča o dječaku kojega majka u ranom djetinjstvu ostavi u domu i na papiru djeluje snažno, a kamoći ne na filmskoj vrpci. Ipak, autori su izbjegli moguću jednodimenzionalnost pristupa s obzirom da se film temelji na izjavama središnjeg lika razvijajući oko njega kontekst svega onoga što ga je odredilo i što ga određuje.

› The story about a boy left in early childhood in a home for abandoned children by his mother, leaves a powerful impression even on paper, let alone on film. Still, the authors have avoided possibility of one-dimensional approach, although the film is based around the testimonies of the main character, by developing around him a context of what has defined him and continues to define him.

Diana Nenadić

Iako se bavi ozbiljnom i neugodnom temom - Marvinovim životom izvan roditeljskog doma posred živih bioloških roditelja, ovaj autoportretni dokumentarac svojim verite pristupom i neposrednošću Marvinova iskaza, kako u intervjuima tako i u voice-overima, uspješno zaobilazi patetičnost te zrači otvorenošću i svježinom.

› Even though it deals with a serious and heavy topic – Marvin's life outside the family home while his biological parents are alive, this auto-portrait documentary, in its vérité approach and immediacy of Marvin's testimony, both in the interviews and in voice-overs, successfully avoids pathos and exudes openness and freshness.

Jura Troje

Život nije fer! Ipak, kad se male ruke slože... Stvarno ne znam što bih rekao. Odvratna priča, tako lijepo i pozitivno ispričana, bez suvišnih repova i bez slijepih putova u koje autori dokumentarača znaju zalutati.

Boško Picula

Svatko tko imalo poznaje učenike i nastavnike Graditeljske škole Čakovec zna da ljudska kreativnost ne može biti ograničena samo na jedno područje. Informativan prikaz rada školske foto-video grupe dobar je "posebni dodatak" uz kompilaciju njezinih filmova.

› Anybody who knows the students and the teachers of the Čakovec Construction School, knows that human creativity cannot be limited to just one area. This informative presentation of the workings of the school's photo-video group is a great "added feature" to the collection of works created there.

Diana Nenadić

Očito je i iz ovog filma o njima samima da članovi foto-video grupe Graditeljske škole Čakovec uživaju u svojem hobiju i filmskoj akciji, a vole se i glupirati pred kamerom, ali to rade sa stilom. Dokumentarac je ipak nešto ozbiljnija vrsta, no kada su oni u pitanju, ne i manje dinamičan od igranog filma.

› It is clear that the members of the photo-video group of the Čakovec Construction School enjoy their hobby and the film action, and they also like to fool around in front of the camera, but they do it in style. A documentary is, after all, a serious genre, but when these kids are involved, it turns out no less dynamic than a live action film.

Boško Picula

U mozaiku različitih vjerskih i etničkih skupina u Libanonu, mlađi su dokumentaristi pronašli vrlo zanimljivu priču o zajednici čiji pripadnici žive nomadskim životom, a svaki pripadnik i svaki naraštaj ima svoje snove i staveve. Tamožajnost uvelike određuje ovaj film koji na iskren način povezuje svoje protagoniste i gledatelje.

› In a mosaic of different religious and ethnic groups living in Lebanon, the young documentary filmmakers have found a very interesting story about a community leading a nomadic lifestyle, in which each member and every generation has their own dreams and attitudes. This mosaic environment greatly informs the film, connecting the characters and viewers in a sincere way.

Diana Nenadić

Nije nelogično što su u socijalno angažiranom dokumentarcu o životu djece beduina ispod šatora, iskazi mališana vrlo slični, jer svi oni imaju slične želje i snove. No, smeta to što se katkada njihovi

Sinopsis › Synopsis:
Svega 40 kilometara od Zagreba, Milan Babić sa svojom obitelji i danas zemlju obrađuje zaprežnim kolima sa stokom. Ovaj film se može nazvati i etno filmom.

› Only about 40 kilometres from Zagreb, Milan Babić and his family still work the land with a traditional animal-drawn plough. This could also be called an ethno film.

Boško Picula

Milan Babić, naslovni protagonist filma, više je nego upečatljiv sugovornik pa je naracija u pozadini slike čisti suvišak. Njegovo evociranje vlastita teškog života u kontrastu s bajkolikim pjezažima zemlje koju obrađuje na tradicionalan način, pune film bez problema te ovaj mini dokumentarac osim osobne ima i etnografsku dimenziju. Iskreno i snažno.

› Milan Babić, the film's protagonist, is more than a memorable interlocutor so the background narration is superfluous in this case. His evocation of his own hard life in contrast with the idyllic landscape and the land which he works in the traditional way, more than "fill" the film easily, so this mini documentary, in addition to a personal dimension, also has an ethnographic one. Sincere and powerful.

Diana Nenadić

Komentar u off-u najavljuje općenitu temu, ali se potom preusmjeri na zagorskog seljaka koji živi "od grunta" i kroz suze priča o svom nesretnom životu. Neke scene su zbrzane, a glazbe proizvoljno birane, ali je film lijepo snimljen, pa je šteta što autorice nisu pronašle čvršći (antropološki) fokus.

› The off-screen commentary announces a general theme but the film then moves to a peasant from Zagorje who lives off his land and through tears speaks about his unhappy life. Some of the scenes are rushed and the music is arbitrary, but the film is nicely shot so it's a shame the authors didn't find a firmer (anthropological) focus.

Boško Picula

Filmski zapisi o Domovinskom ratu i poraću u Hrvatskoj uvijek se gledaju s posebnom pozornosću. Ovaj je dokumentarni zapis uistinu zreo rad, koji u svojih desetak minuta trajanja i uz samo jednog protagonista, na snažan i slikovit način opisuje strahote rata. Ovako dobro pripremljen materijal slobodno je mogao poslužiti i za puno duži film što samo govori o senzibilitetu i mogućnostima autora.

› Films about the war in Croatia and the post-war period are always watched with special attention. This documentary is a really mature one and in its ten minutes and with only one protagonist, in a powerful and vivid way describes the horrors of war. Material that is prepared this well could easily have served for a much longer film which only speaks on the behalf of the perceptiveness and ability of its author.

Diana Nenadić

Premda djeluje usporeno i monotonu, dokumentarac o branitelju koji doživljava bicikliranje kao terapiju protiv PTSP-ja, uspostavlja ravnotežu između njegovih neposrednih iskaza i rutinskih prizora (vožnji) te bez patetike izaziva suosjećanje prema svome subjektu.

› Even though it seems slow and monotonous, the documentary about the former soldier who finds cycling a form of therapy for his PTSD, sets a balance between his immediate statements and routine scenes (of him riding his bike) and without pathos invites sympathy for its subject.

Boško Picula

Ispred kamera mladih filmaša iz Gunje i motorne pile djeluju nježno. A kako i ne bi kada se jedna takva "motorka" našla u rukama prvorazredna naivnog umjetnika čija priča u filmu teče kao i rad pri obradi drva. Odlučno i suptilno u isti trenutak. Možda nije riječ o najvišem domu filmova iz Gunje, ali u slučaju SKIG-a vrijede neki sasvim drugi standardi.

In front of the cameras of the young filmmakers from the Gunja studio, even chainsaws can seem tender. And how could they not when one such chainsaw finds itself in the hands of a naïve artist whose story flows in the film just as smoothly as his wood work. Bold and subtle at the same time. Maybe it's not the best work to come out of the Gunja studio, but they always raise the bar pretty high.

Diana Nenadić

Teško da se motornom pilom može kipariti nježno, kao što to priziva naslov, no kipariti se može, kao što pokazuje ovaj solidni dokumentarni portret posavskog naivnog umjetnika, nje-gove ruralne svakodnevice i životne sredine.

It is not very likely that one can make sculptures with a chainsaw tenderly, as the film's title suggests, but one can make sculptures. This solid documentary paints a portrait of a naïve artist from the Posavina region, his rural daily life and surroundings.

Jura Troje

Zanimljiva tema i lijep film, no nedostaje glazbe. Mislim da je uopće ni nema. Previše čvrstih, uplašenih kadrova. Najbolji kadar u filmu je onaj s neposlušnim konjem, gdje se snimatelj morao potruditi da sve uhvati i izbjegne konja. Zanimljiv dokumentarac uz kojega minute jako brzo prolaze.

Interesting subject-matter and a lovely film, but it lacks music. I think there isn't any at all. Too many fixed, scared frames. The best frame in the film is the one with the rebellious horse in which the cinematographer had to make an effort to capture it all while avoiding the horse. Boško Picula

Bez gorčine i optuživanja, mladi Karlovčani donose priču o svom gradu i njegovojo potrebi za kinom, koja se na suvisao i poticajan način pretvara u mali filmski apel.

› Without bitterness and reproach, the young people from Karlovac tell the story about their town and its need for a cinema. Told coherently and encouragingly, it is an appeal in the form of a film.

Diana Nenadić

Premda je riječ o dokumentarcu u reportažnoj formi, priča o borbi Karlovčana za obnovu svojega posljednjeg kina odiše entuzijazmom i aktivizmom, odlikama koje se rijetko nalaze upravo tamo gdje bi ih trebalo biti najviše - u filmu mladih.

All-girl Rock Band "Punčke"

NATJECATELJSKI PROGRAM

Režija › Directed by: Marinko Marinkić, Filip Meštrović

Voditelj › Group leader: Josip Krunić

Studio Kreativnih Ideja
Gunja, Gunja, Hrvatska ›
Croatia

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Dokumentarni rock film koji govori o problematiči ženskog rock benda u Hrvatskoj. Punčke!

› A rock documentary about what it is like to be an all-girl band in Croatia. Punčke!

Boško Picula

Ženski rock-sastav koji film prati zanimljiv je sam po sebi, ne zato što su u njemu redom otkačene djevojke, nego upravo suprotno, što ga čine normalne cure čija je svakodnevica uistinu inspirativna. Film je definitivno predug, ali i definitivno dobar.

› An all-girl rock band in the film is interesting in itself, not because of all the crazy girls in it. Quite contrary, precisely because they are normal girls whose daily life is truly inspirational. The film is definitely too long, but also definitely good.

Diana Nenadić

Od 1960-ih, dokumentarci o rock pjevačima i bendovima često se snimaju promatračkom metodom "direktnoga filma". U ovome ima i interaktivnog materijala, jer Punčke imaju što reći o svojem statusu i javnoj percepciji. Čini se da se ponekad i ponavljaju, što nije njihova greška, pa je film ponešto predug.

› Since the 1960s, documentaries about rock singers and bands have often been done in observational mode in the form of direct cinema. This one also has interactive material, because the band, Punčke, have a lot to say about their status and public reception. It seems, however, that some of the scenes are repetitive, which makes the film a bit too long.

Jura Troje

Ne znam što mi je zanimljivije: bend Punčke ili ovaj dokumentarac. To znači da je film u potpunosti uspio! Bravo svima, dali ste mi novi pogled na srednjoškolski film. Odlična tema, lijepo povezane i isprepletene tematske cjeline, vrlo zanimljivi sugovornici, puno lokacija i puno dobre glazbe. Snimatelji, pripazite malo na oštrinu.

› I don't know what is more interesting - the band or this documentary. It means the film is a complete success. Bravo to everyone, you have given me a new perspective on high school film. A great subject, nicely connected and intertwined thematic units, very interesting interlocutors, a lot of locations and good music! Cinematographers, pay attention to sharpness.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Ovdje je riječ o geološkom dokumentarcu koji tematizira zavičaj iz kojega su potekli ovi filmaši - pokrajini Durham u Ujedinjenom Kraljevstvu.

› A geological documentary about the filmmakers' home region - Durham County in the United Kingdom.

Boško Picula

Filmske su priče često tik do nas. Na primjer, u sastavu i građi našeg kutka Zemlje. Od toga su pošli mladi britanski filmaši pronašavši u geologiji svoga kraja niz zanimljivosti. Slikom zadivljujući dokumentarac propustio je pronaći pravi ritam i trajanje kojim bi efektno pokrenuo ono o čemu govorи.

› Stories for films are often very close at hand. For example, the composition and structure of the earth in our part of the world. These young British filmmakers have found in the geology of their home region a series of interesting facts. This visually stunning documentary, however, has failed to find the right rhythm and length to effectively "get moving" what it speaks about.

Diana Nenadić

Kompilacijom individualnih animirano-dokumentarnih priloga, grupa školaraca-istraživača na edukativan, ali i inventivan način, prikazuje zanimljivosti geološkoga parka, nudeći istodobno vlastite doživljaje i viđenja svoga zavičaja.

› A group of high school explorers, in an educational but also inventive way shows the peculiarities of a geological park, simultaneously offering their own impressions and visions of their home region in this compilation of individual animation-documentary pieces.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Žitna kuća povijesna je zgrada od velikog značenja za grad Karlovac. Je li konačno i za nju došlo neko novo vrijeme?

› "Žitna kuća" is a historical building of great importance for the town of Karovlac. Has the time for change finally come?

Boško Picula

I kuća može biti sjajan filmski lik. Potrebno je samo da i ona ima svoju priču te da se tom pričom pozabave vješti filmaši. Takvi su realizatori ovog dokumentarca o staroj zgradbi koja je niz puta mijenjala namjene da bi na kraju srušena zaživjela novim-starim sjajem. Čestitamo graditeljima, restauratorima i filmašima!

› A house can sometimes be a great film character too. All it takes is a good story and for skillful filmmakers to tell this story. The old building has had different uses, only to get torn down in the end and receive a new-old glow. We congratulate its constructors and restorers, and the filmmakers, tellers of its story!

Diana Nenadić

Od mladih autora ne očekuju se ovakvi ozbiljni dokumentarci, no domaćini su to ipak odradili kako treba. Priča o rekonstrukciji zgrade koja je bila i ostala srce Karlovca informativna je i bogata primjerenom iskorištenom arhivskom građom. Sve u svemu više nego korektna.

› Young authors are usually not expected to make such "serious" documentaries, but the festival hosts have managed to pull it off. The story of the reconstruction of the building which was and remains the heart of Karlovac, is informative and rich in archive footage which is put to good use. All in all, better than just fine.

Jura Troje

E, to je dokumentarac! Opsežno obrađena tema, s intervjuima, lijepo obrađenim starim fotografijama, popraćenim fazama gradnje. Dokumentarac je napravljen s puno truda i ljubavi prema svom gradu. Odlično rješenje prolaza vremena: snimkama grada, detaljima... Puno smo naučili.

› Now this is a great documentary! Extensively covered subject, with interviews, nice use of old photographs which follow the stages of its development. A documentary made with a lot of effort and love for the authors' town! An excellent way of dealing with the passage of time - shots of the city, details. We have learned a lot.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Rana je zima na benzinskoj postaji u predgrađu. Mlada žena ispija kavu s čuvarom u obližnjoj trgovini dok se u blizini smuča neugledni starac. Vrlo neprikladna situacija...

› It is the beginning of winter at a petrol station in the suburbs. A young woman is drinking coffee with a security guard at a local shop while, near by, a shabby-looking old man hangs about. A very inconvenient situation...

Boško Picula

Zabuna je zahvalan element priče na kojem se temelje mnogobrojni uspjeli filmovi. I ovaj je film uspio ne samo zahvaljujući zabuni koja u konačnici dovodi do tragedije, već i zbog finog manevriranja likovima, njihovim motivima i prostoru u kojem se priča zbiva. Ipak, rasplet se prerano naslućuje.

› Error is a generous element in storytelling and it serves as the basis for numerous successful films. This one is also successful, not only thanks to confusion, which in the end leads to a tragedy, but also thanks to the skillful manoeuvring of characters, their motives and space in which the story is set. Still, the outcome is anticipated too soon.

Diana Nenadić

Stara poslovica "odijelo ne čini čovjeka" opet je na djelu, samo su protagonisti novi, kao i okolnosti. Ovaj film pokazuje kako se humanistički angažirana priča može dobro odglumiti i bez dijaloga, a jasno ispričati s pomoću šumova i glazbe.

› The old saying "Don't judge a book by its covers" is again put to good use, only the characters and the circumstances are different. The film shows how a socially-engaged story can be clear and have great acting performances without dialogue, using only sounds and music.

Jura Troje

Nedostatak komunikacije vodi nas do straha od nepoznatog, do upotrebe oružja, do zatvaranja od svijeta... Sviđa mi se atmosfera filma, ta tišina, ta nesposobnost komuniciranja kojom smo okruženi, a u isto vrijeme mi nedostaje zvuk! Ovako autor pretjeruje u namjeri koja mi se ustvari svidjela. Dobar film, ali nekako nije ušašten do kraja.

› Lack of communication leads to fear of the unknown, to the use of guns, to closing off from the world... I like the atmosphere of the film, this silence, the inability to communicate that surrounds us, yet, at the same time I miss the sound! This way, the author overdoes with an intent that is in itself very good... A good film, but seems a bit unpolished to completion.

Boško Picula

Već od pozadine naslova film iskače od sličnih namjenskih uradaka. Zašto? Zato što ima ključnu sastavnicu dobrog filma - dobru priču. Njezina je realizacija mogla biti i dorađenija, ali su zato interpreti središnjeg para uvjerljivi. Oni su ponešto "nadglasani" od ambiciozne pozadinske naracije, ali je u konačnici sve na svom mjestu. Namjena je dobila odgovarajuću formu.

Starting with the background of the title, the film distinguishes itself from similar commissioned films. Why? Because it possesses the key component of a quality film - a good story. Its realization could be a bit more refined, but the central pair of actors is very convincing. They are at times subdued by the ambitious background narration, but all in all, everything is in its place. The intent is given a proper form for its realization.

› A love story or a commissioned (educational) film about the dangers of hepatitis? Both. It would be even better without the overdramatic off-screen narration and Clapton's Tears in Heaven, however.

Jura Troje

Lijepa, topla priča, romantično ispričana, poučna i odlična. Ne baš vješto snimljen, početničko novinarski ispričan, prosječno odgumljen, ali kao cjelina jednostavno lijep, dubok, jak film.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Tko je taj čovjek koji se stalno pojavljuje u snimljenom materijalu za film? Što on želi? I kakve su mu namjere? Samo su neka od pitanja koja postavlja ovaj film.

› Who is the man who keeps appearing in the footage for a film? What does he want? And what are his intentions? These are just some of the questions this film raises.

Boško Picula

Mnogobrojni će filmaši reći da je snimanje filma težak posao. Filmaši iz ove napete priče dodat će da je rad na filmu pravi užas. Više nego uspjeli spoj trilera i filma strave, rad mlađih Zaprešićana od prvog do posljednjeg kadra otkriva njihov osjećaj za zaplet, ritam i stvaranje ugodaja. Ovdje slika uistinu govori više od stotinu riječi. Strašno dobro!

› Many filmmakers would say that shooting a film is very hard. The filmmakers in this suspense story might add that shooting a film is actually horror-like. A very successful combination of thriller and horror movie, the work of young authors from Zaprešić, from beginning to end reveals their sense for plot, rhythm and creating suspense and atmosphere. Here, an image truly speaks louder than words. Horribly good!

Diana Nenadić

Odličan triler koji preispituje granice između stvarnosti i fikcije, kao i manipulativnu narav filma kao medija. Autor čvrsto vodi pri-ču i domišljato se koristi ekranima kako bi uspostavio zrcalnu relaciju između pojave prijetećeg lika u fiktivnom i stvarnom svijetu.

› A great thriller examining the boundaries between reality and fiction, as well as the manipulative nature of film as a medium. The author leads the story firmly, skilfully using the screens to establish a mirror relationship between the appearance of the menacing character in the fictional and the "real" world.

Jura Troje

Dobar, napet horor. Vjerno prikazuje strahove i halucinacije izazvane dugim noćnim montažama. U početku čudan, s neozvučenim Kubrickovskim dijelovima (ovdje to ipak izgleda kao pogreška!), ustvari je fora. Baš jest.

› An excellent horror film packed with suspense... It portrays realistically the fears and hallucinations caused by long nights of editing. Strange at first, using Kubrick's shots without sound (here it seems like a mistake, though), it is actually cool. It really is.

Pomaknuta inačica američkih krimića iz 40-tih i 50-tih godina, u neizbjegnom spoju sa školskim zapletom, u početku nudi više no što na kraju donosi. Možda je problem u nedoumici autora snimaju li parodiju ili pak vlastiti pogled na žanr. Ipak, dobre volje ne nedostaje kao ni ljubavi prema filmskoj umjetnosti. A to je najvažnije.

• This American 40s and 50s crime story with a twist, with an added school plot, in the beginning offers more than it delivers in the end. Perhaps because of the authors' dilemma whether they are making a parody or perhaps giving their own view of the genre. Still, it does not fall short either of effort or the love of film art, and that is what really matters.

Diana Nenadić

S manje proizvoljnijih montažnih poteza i stereotipnih rješenja u profiliranju likova (osobito detektiva), ovaj "nijemi" psiho-thriller bio bi i mnogo pregledniji i daleko napetiji.

• Less arbitrary editing decisions and stereotypical solutions of character profiling (especially of the detective), would make this "silent" psycho-thriller clearer and give it far more suspense.

Jura Troje

Zanimljiv, sažet i duhovit radiionički film. Dobar primjer kako se u kratkom vremenu (na radiionici) može napraviti nešto zanimljivo iz čega svi ponešto nauče. Drago mi je što je film većinom nijem jer, da je sav taj tekst odglumljen od strane amatera i u tako kratkom vremenu, film bi izgledao kao sapunica. Ovakav nam okupira sva čula i odličan je!

• An interesting, concise and witty workshop film. A good example of how in short time (at a workshop) something interesting can be made from which everyone can learn something. It's good that the characters do not speak much, because if all that dialogue had been delivered by amateurs in such a short span, it would have turned it into a soap opera. This way, it occupies all our senses and it's great!

Dvoboj čuvara i slučajnog posljetitelja trgovackog centra preko ekrana nadzorne kamere. Kratko i jasno, upravo je to tema filma.

Boško Picula

Tko gleda, uskoro će i sam biti gledan. Okosnica je to ovog napetog mini-trilera koji do samog raspleta ne ostavlja puno prostora za predah. Iako vizualno statičan, slijedom zapleta o čuvaru koji preko nadzornih kamera uoči sumnjivog pojedinca, film je u biti izuzetno dinamičan jer gledatelj svojim iščekivanjem sam gradi svaki kadar. Višeslojna komunikacija i dinamika.

› The one who watches will soon end up being watched. That is the basis of this mini-thriller full of suspense which doesn't let up until the very end. Though visually static, because in the plot a security guard notices a suspicious man through security cameras, the film is actually really dynamic because the viewers create each frame with their own anticipation. The communication and the dynamics are multi-layered.

Diana Nenadić

Protagonist je promatrač (kontrolor sigurnosnih ekrana u trgovackom centru), a antagonist promatrani (jedan od prolaznika na kojeg su usmjerene kamere). Među njima nema ni komunikacije ni dodira, no ovaj napeti triler razvija poseban odnos među njima.

› The "protagonist" is the observer (a security camera officer in a shopping centre) and the "antagonist" the one who is observed (one of the passers-by at whom the cameras are directed). There is no communication or contact between them, yet this intense thriller creates a special relationship between them...

Jura Troje

Bravo! Odličan napeti triler koji kida živce. Sablasne prazne prostorije, likovi su udaljeni, ali znaju jedan za drugoga i to ih drži blizu, bliže, još bliže. Odlična boja filma! Ustvari, nema se tu što nabrajati, film je u cijelosti izvrstan.

Još jedan film koji na domisljat način koristi element obreata sjajno kombinirajući realizam i imaginaciju. U prvom slučaju pratimo pravu skandinavsku obiteljsku dramu, a u drugom nadnaravnu priču na tragu Šestog čula. Smirena režija, decentna gluma i odličan scenarij u tako malo vremena, prava su preporuka ovom filmu.

Kada stvarnost postane odveć bolnom, čovjek redovito traži izlaz u zamišljanju. Jednostavne mizanscene, a iznimno slojevite priče, ovaj je film u isto vrijeme poetična posveta ljubavi koja nikad ne umire i realističan prikaz vremena koji nagriza svakog ljudsko biće. Izvrsni nastupi dvoje glavnih glumaca nadovezuje se na veoma zrelu režiju i priču.

› When reality becomes too painful, one often seeks refuge in imagination. Using simple mise-en-scene yet extremely layered stories, this is both a poetic ode to never-dying love and a realistic rendering of how time affects every human being. Excellent performances by the two main actors go hand in hand with very accomplished directing and narration.

Diana Nenadić

Mladić susreće staricu koja je, vjerojatno zbog traumatičnog gubitka, izgubila dodir sa zbiljom. No pitanje je što je zbilja i tko je zapravo traumatiziran u ovoj neobično suptilnoj priči o ljubavi i transgeneracijskoj suosjećajno-

Srednjoškolski par očekuje dijete. On se veseli sinu. No, što ako bude kćer?

› A high school couple expecting a baby. He is looking forward to a son. But what if it's a girl?

Boško Picula

Autori su ovdje htjeli sve. I biti duhoviti, i biti inovativni, i biti poučni. Uspjelo im je od svega pola jer bi bilo bolje da su svoju priču o srednjoškolcima koji će postati roditeljima koncipirali ili kao komediju ili kao dramu. Kada su u sve to uveli i pitanje borbe za ravnopravnost spolova, ostali su bez cjeline. Ipak, pojedina su rješenja u priči odlična.

› The authors wanted to do it all. Be funny, be innovative, be educational. They succeeded half way in all of it, and it would have been better if they had conceived their story of teenage parenthood either as a comedy or as a drama. When on top of all that they introduce the issue of equality of sexes, they lose the unity of the film. Still, several solutions in the story are great.

Diana Nenadić

Film je jednim udarcem opadio dvije pljuske: mačizmu i malograđanskim navikama, a potruđio se da stilizacijski osvježi ilustrativnu rutinu svoje priče.

› The film kills two birds in one swoop: of machismo and narrow-minded customs, and also tries to stylistically refresh the routine illustrated in the story.

Jura Troje

Film bi se ustvari trebao boriti za ženska prava. Mislim da bi trebalo nešto bolje snimiti po tom pitanju jer ovo je još jedan trash. Kada vidim dvoje srednjoškolaca koji očekuju bebu, ne očekujem da imaju problem oko spola djeteta, već oko organizacije svojih života.

› The film should in fact be speaking out for women's rights. I think a better film should be made on the subject because this one is again a bit trashy. When I see a high school couple expecting a baby, I don't expect them to have a problem with the baby's sex but rather with the organization of their lives.

KAD MAMA NIJE KOD KUĆE

When Mom is Not at Home
Ko mame ni doma

Boško Picula

Baš kao i njihovi likovi u filmu, autori su se ovdje izvrsno zabavljali snimajući film. Ne znamo je li na kraju, kao i u priči, na set došla nečija mama, ali je zabava očito uspjela. Ne i sam film kojem, osim zgodnog završetka, nedostaje sadržaja i duhovitosti. Možda će toga biti drugi put jer ekipi entuzijazma ne nedostaje.

Just like the characters in the film, the authors here had an excellent time making this film. We don't know whether in the end, like in the story, somebody's mom came to the set, but the party was obviously a successful one. Maybe more so than the film itself, which, except for a cool ending, lacks some content and humour. Perhaps next time, because this team obviously isn't short on enthusiasm.

Diana Nenadić

Tinejdžerska klasika: roditelja nema kod kuće i vrijeme je za tulum! Hoće li mama ipak saznati? Za odgovor na to pitanje ne treba čekati dugo, jer film je dovoljno kratak, a tulum dovoljno di-namično raskadriran, da čekanje bude lakše i zabavnije.

› A teenage classic: the parents are away and it's time for a party! Will mom find out about it, after all? We don't have to wait long to find out the answer, because the film is short, and the party dynamically sequenced, making the suspense easier and more fun.

Jura Troje

Raskalašena tinejdžerska zabava u dnevnoj sobi... Ni blizu konkurenциj: trash, očito osmišljeno, pripremljeno i snimljeno u jednom danu. Možda je prikladnije za dječje festivale.

Boško Picula

Ovo je tako dobra dosjetka za žanr filmova strave koji kronično pati od novih zapleta, da će se mladi Finci obogatiti uspiju li prodati svoju priču kao predložak za neki hollywoodski ili japski prepravak. Na tragu serijskog Krug, film vrsno sugerira da je suvremena tehnologija vrelo zastrašujućih mogućnosti, ali je sam film, na žalost, tehnički odveć nesavršen za visoku ocjenu.

› This is such a great idea for a horror, a genre chronically suffering from a lack of new plots, that its young filmmakers from Finland could become very rich if they sold the rights for their film for a Hollywood or Japanese remake. In the tradition of The Ring, the film skilfully suggests that modern technology is a well of frightening possibilities. The film, however, is unfortunately a bit flawed technically and therefore not up for better grades.

Diana Nenadić

Kako snimiti što autentičniji horor i utržiti ga? Ništa bez ukle-te kamere iz second hand dućana koja, dok snima, priziva smrtonosne utvare. Priča je pregledno ispričana, ali loše odglumljena pa je propuštena prilika da se od nje napravi i horor komedija.

› How to make a horror film that is as authentic as possible and make money of it? No way without a haunted camera from a second hand store which, while shooting, summons deadly spectres. The story is told coherently, but the acting is bad, so the authors miss a chance to make a horror comedy as well.

Jura Troje

Fora ideja, ali slaba realizacija. Nije neka sreća na kraju svega. Ali opet, ideja je dobra i film se zbog toga pamti.

Komični mjuzikl koji tematizira beskrajne razgovore s korisničkom podrškom. U svakom slučaju ovaj film daje novi pogled na noćnu moru običnog čovjeka.

› A comedy musical about endless conversations with customer support assistants.

The film gives a new view of the nightmare of common people.

Boško Picula

Mjuzikl o problemima s internetom? Zašto ne! Idejom jedan od najoriginalijih naslova ovogodišnje konkurenčije, govorio o djevojci koju nevolje s korisničkom podrškom natjeraju na pjevanje, baš kao i davatelje usluge. Otkačeno, ponešto nedorađeno, ali i zgodno u trenucima kada i sami dođemo u poziciju središnje jučakinje. Tko pjeva, zlo ne misli.

› A musical about internet problems? Why not! The idea is one of the most original ones in this competition, about a girl whose problems with the customer support make her sing, just like the service providers. Quirky and somewhat sloppy but very neat when we find ourselves in the girl's situation.

Diana Nenadić

Ova priča o zbrici koju digitalna civilizacija često izaziva među svojim korisnicima vjerojatno bi dobro funkcionalala i bez pjevanih dijaloga jer je narativno i izvedbeno precizno razrađena. No, s pjevanjem koje ilustrira različite temperamente i stanja likova, film je dobio i potrebnu dozu začudnosti.

› The story about confusion which often arises in our digitalized environment would probably work very well even without the singing because it is also narratively and technically very precise. Still, the singing which illustrates the different temperaments and states of the characters lends it a certain dose of weirdness.

Jura Troje

Ne znam u kojem je stanju ljudila ovo smišljeno, ali baš mi se sviđa. Mučni razgovori sa službama za korisnike pretvoreni u operu? Meni je to dosad više izgledalo kao psiho horor, no ovaj film mi je otvorio novu percepciju. Odličan film!

› I don't know in which state of madness this film was conceived, but I really like it! Torturous conversations with customer support assistants turned into an opera? I always see it as a psycho horror but this film opens up a new perspective. An excellent film!

Fresh film festival, Irska › Ireland

Sinopsis › Synopsis:
On kasni. Hoće li ona čekati?
› He is late. Will she wait?

Boško Picula

Tko čeka, taj dočeka! Vrijedi to i za ovu paralelno vođenu priču o dvoje mladih i zaljubljenih koji ma jedno kašnjenje gotovo ugrozi vezu. Srećom, za sve postoji objašnjenje kao što, srećom, postoje mlađi filmaši koji svoje, nako ni po čemu posebne dogodovštine, mogu ispričati na drugačiji i duhovit način. Pohvalno.

› All things come to those who wait! That is also true in this parallel story about two young people in love to whom one instance of tardiness almost jeopardizes the relationship. Luckily, there is an explanation for everything just as, luckily, there are young filmmakers who can tell their seemingly trivial anecdotes in a different and funny way. Praiseworthy.

Diana Nenadić

Ona ga čeka na mostu, a on kasnji "iz nehata". Prateći paralelne radnje - čekanje i trčanje, gledatelj se nuda da će dečko ipak stići na spoj, jer tako nalažu norme romanse. Ni ovaj put nisu izigrane, premda su likovi gotovo nijemi.

Film je zato dinamičan i dotjeran.

› She is waiting for him on the bridge and he is late by accident... Following the parallel actions – waiting and running, the viewer hopes the boyfriend will make it to the date after all, because these are the conventions of romance. They are satisfied here too, even though the characters are almost mute. That's what makes the film so dynamic and stylish.

Jura Troje

Prekrasan, moderno snimljen film, vrlo precizno montiran, sladak i romantičan. Jedan jedini kadar je viška: ulaz u komediju kada njegov prijatelj u krupnom planu komentira da nije platio račun... Možda malo jednostavno i brzo završen, ali i dalje odličan.

› A beautiful film shot in a modern way, very precisely edited, cute and romantic. There is just one unnecessary shot, the introduction to the comedy, when his friend explains he hasn't paid his bill... Perhaps the ending is a bit simple and hasty, but the film is still great.

Boško Picula

I dok je u nekim filmovima pozadinsko pričanje nepotrebno, ovdje je takva naracija sama srž u potpunosti uspjelog koncepta. Dvoje mladih, senzibilnih i posvemu natprosječnih pojedinaca testiraju sudbinu ne bi li se ipak susreli i otpočeli zajedničko vrijeme. On ne nosi sat, ona ga uvek nosi, a njihovi filmski autori uvek znaju što rade i kako vode svoj film. Bravo!

› While in some films off-screen narration is unnecessary, here that sort of narration is at the very core of a completely successful concept. Two young people, bright and, by all accounts, individuals above average, test their fates in order to meet and begin their time together. He doesn't wear a watch, she always does, and the authors of the film always know what they are doing and in which direction their film is going. Bravo!

Videoskupina Učeničkog doma Varaždin, Varaždin, Hrvatska › Croatia

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Film opisuje inicijaciju "fazana" (učenika prvih razreda) u učeničkom domu prisilnim tuširanjem. Uistinu, obred.

› The film describes the initiation of "pheasants" (first year students) in a student dorm by forced showering. Truly a ritual.

Boško Picula

Ova gorko-slatka inačica klasika Alfreda Hitchcocka prikazuje nasilje prema domskim "fazanima" koje je u konačnici sankcionirano stavom samih vršnjaka. Film ima efektnu ideju, dobro kadriranje i naglašenu narativnu ulogu glazbe. Urednije građe i pažljivijim izmjenama planova, film bi bio stepenicu više.

› This bitter-sweet take on Alfred Hitchcock's classic shows violence towards the "pheasants" in the dorm, which in the end gets sanctioned by the attitude of the students themselves. The film has an effective idea, great sequencing and a pronounced narrative role of music. By giving it a more rigorous structure and through a careful use of shots, the film would be a notch better.

Diana Nenadić

Čini se da nema više filmskog festivala bez barem jedne varijacije na neku od Hitchcockovih tema. Scena pod tušem u Psihu nedvojno je najcitatiranija, ali samo djelomice, jer se obredno horor tuširanje završava u slobodnom narativnom stilu.

› It seems there is no festival left without at least one film which is a version of one of Hitchcock's themes. The scene in the shower in Psycho is by far the most quoted one, but only partially, because this ritual horror showering eventually takes some narrative liberties.

Jura Troje

Jednostavna tema higijene uz tešku temu inicijacije o kojoj se tradicionalno šuti. Puno dobre glazbe, bez nepotrebnih dijaloga. Nekoliko kadrova previše i pauze koje jako bodu oči i ubijaju koncentraciju. Sve u svemu, film koji treba pogledati i iz kojeg treba učiti!

› A simple theme of hygiene combined with a heavy motif of ritual initiation that traditionally goes unmentioned. A lot of good music and no unnecessary dialogue. Četiri mlade dame i njihovi snovi u sjeni Olimpijskih igara okosnica su ovog kratkog filma. I više nego aktualno.

› The foundation of this film are four young ladies and their dreams in the shadow of the Olympics. A very topical subject.

Boško Picula

Ovogodišnje su Ljetne olimpijske igre u Londonu ne samo najveći sportski događaj u 2012. godini, nego i prilika mnogobrojnim pojedincima da kroz manifestaciju koja ujedinjuje cijeli svijet iskažu svoj odnos prema položaju u tom svijetu. Djekojkama u ovom filmu to uistinu polazi za rukom, ali autorima nije pošlo za rukom do kraja sučeliti globalni događaj i konkretnе pojedince.

› This year's summer Olympics in London are not only the biggest sporting event of 2012 and one uniting the entire world, but also a chance for thousands of individuals to express their attitude towards the world in which they live. The girls in this film truly succeed in doing so, but the authors fell short of counterpointing this global event with specific individuals.

Diana Nenadić

Film je deklariran kaoigrani, ali mogao bi biti i dokumentarni, jer ispovijeda posve autentične snove i ideje o budućnosti mlađih ljudi, koje ovdje predstavljaju četiri djevojčice. To što su sve četiri islamskog podrijetla, njima može, ali i ne mora biti bitno, a to je nešto o čemu će sasvim sigurno odlučivati gledatelji.

› The film is classified as live action, but it could also be a documentary because it tells completely authentic dreams and ideas of the future of young people, here represented by four girls. The fact that they are all Islamic can, but does not have to, matter to them, it is something the viewers will decide for themselves.

Jura Troje

Lijepa poveznica običnih, nažalost nevidljivih ljudi, koji imaju svoje snove, ali i gorak osjećaj da žive u sjeni velikog spektakla u susjedstvu. Lijepo poigravanje sa sličnostima i razlikama, i težnja prema ravnopravnosti. Prigodno.

Film obrađuje temu današnje mlade populacije, ponajviše ženskoga spola, koja ulaže mnogo truda i živaca kako bi dobila savršenu fotografiju za samo jedan lajk na Facebooku.

› The film deals with the current topic of the younger population, mostly girls, who invest a lot of effort and energy into getting the "perfect" photograph for just one "Like" on Facebook.

Boško Picula

Da nema Marka Zuckerberga, stotine milijuna Zemljana ne bi lajkalo jedni druge. Isto vrijedi i za središnju junakinju ove priče o radu na najboljoj fotografiji za ažuriranje profila na Facebooku koja je filmski ponešto zbrkana i zbrzana, ali veoma uvjerljiva u prikazu logike i važnosti društvene mreže o kojoj govori. Moderno i dobro montirano.

› If it weren't for Mark Zuckerberg, hundreds of millions of people in the world wouldn't "Like" other people. The same goes for the main character of this story about working on the best photograph for your Facebook profile. The film is executed slightly haphazardly, but the story is very convincing in its representation of the logic and importance of the social network in question. Modern and well edited.

Diana Nenadić

Jezgrovita i dinamična priča o djevojci koja se na Facebooku želi predstaviti što ljepšom fotografijom. Ona se šminka, češlja, presvlači, ne bi li izgledala što bolje.

Ovo je film o ideji za film. Ali doslovno.

› This is a film about an idea for a film. Literally.

Boško Picula

Ovdje ideje autora filma uistinu imaju i podrijetlo i realizaciju. I dok glavni lik muku muči sa svojom svakodnevicom i pomanjkanjem ideja, film ga prati odlično komponiranim kadrovima i njihovim montažnim slijedom. Kontrast idejnosti i bezidejnosti naglašava i odnos unutar središnjeg para te je završni rezultat film koji je sa svakim novim gledanjem sve bolji.

› Here the ideas of the film's author really have an origin and its realization. And while the main character is troubled by his daily life and absence of ideas, the film follows him with excellent sequencing and editing flow. The contrast between having an idea and lacking any ideas is further emphasized by the relationship within the central pair and the outcome is a film which gets better every time you watch it.

Diana Nenadić

Humorno-ironičan prikaz umjetnika u stvaralačkoj, a otuda i ljubavnoj krizi. Ironiju podupiru iskošeni rakursi, neobična mizanscenska rješenja, dobro apstofirani detalji, kao i upute za samopoč što ih čita robotizirani glas u off-u, jer ih nijemi protagonist svojim ponašanjem zaobilazi ili jednostavno ignorira.

The irony is emphasized by angled frames, unusual mis-en-scene solutions and well-spotted details, as well as the self help instructions read by a robotic voice in off-screen, because the "silent" protagonist avoids them in his behaviour or simply "ignores" them.

Autor filma je, ne samo za hrvatske, već i za svjetske standarde, realizirao beskompromisnu priču u kojoj ljubav dvojice mladića unutar trokuta koji čini i djevojka, nije samo naznaka nego i vrlo konkretno izražavanje emocija i strasti. Njih uobličuje elegantna crno-bijela fotografija i elegična klavirska pratnja, a remeti poneki kliše i odgovlačenje.

• The author has made an uncompromising film, not only by Croatian but also by international standards, about the love between two young men in a love triangle with a girl. This love is not only hinted at, there is a very real expression of emotions and passions which are framed by elegant black and white cinematography and elegiac piano music, only disrupted by an occasional cliché and at times some slow pace.

• This film definitely speaks about taboos. About the relationship between two different kinds of love: between a boy and a girl, and the dark love between her boyfriend and his friend, which leads to a tragic end.

tabue, ali nije bez mana: previše patetizira i s emotivnim stanjima pripovjedača i sa sadržajem sjećanja, a svršetak je nemaštovit.

• Love triangles are narratively stimulating but also very challenging topics, especially when a girl stands in the way of love between two friends. This gay-drama subverts enrooted taboos, but it is not without a flaw: too much melodrama in the emotional states of the narrators and their memories, and the ending is unimaginative.

Jura Troje

Autorska ekipa filma na čelu sa svestranim Aleksandrom Petranom snimila je duhovitu priču o srednjoškolcu koji iz 2050. godine stiže u sadašnjost kako bi promijenio nemili tijek događaja. Film ima izvrstan zaplet, lucidnu analizu moguće budućnosti, istodobno je profesionalno realiziran i mladenački zaigran, a uporaba vizualnih efekata u kontekstu srednjoškolskog filma upravo je senzacionalna.

› The film's authors led by the versatile Aleksandar Petran have made a witty story about a high school student who travels from 2050 to our preset to change a sequence of unfortunate events. The film has an excellent plot, lucidly analyzes possible futures, it is both professionally executed and youthfully playful, and the use of visual effects in the context of high school film is just sensational.

FICTION

Kako snimiti film o utočištu za pse s nizom tužnih životinja, a ne biti patetičan i utopljen u šablone? Rješenje su pronašli autori ove uspjele filmske dosjetke u kojoj kadrove s napuštenim psima prati priča o njihovoj potrazi za toplim domom i obitelji. U tome filmu prima element metafore o svim napuštenim bićima te do kraja ostaje nježan, sjetan i bolan.

› How to make a film about an animal shelter with a series of sad animals, without being pathetic and clichéd? The young authors of this film find the solution in this successful concept film in which the shots of the abandoned dogs are accompanied by their quest for a warm home and family. That way the film becomes a metaphor about all the abandoned beings and remains tender, melancholic and painful till the end.

no tugaljiva, a voice-over ponekad ide suprotnim smjerom od slike koja predstavlja glavne protagoniste. Ipak, film je simpatičan.

› In this "testimony" of a dog from a shelter overlooking the sea, about the life behind the fence, the text is unnecessarily repetitive, the music is at times overly morose, and the voice-over sometimes goes in the opposite direction of the image representing the protagonists. Despite all that, it's a cute film.

Jura Troje

Ovaj domišljati film je svog naslovnog junaka prikazao tako uvjerljivo kao da je riječ o profesionalnom glumcu. A nije! Rasples je možda malo razočaravajući, ali ne zbog poante, već zbog barem još poneke mogućnosti u scenariju koja je propuštena.

› This inventive film presents its protagonist as convincingly as if it were a professional actor, which he is not. The ending is perhaps a bit disappointing, not because of the final point but because of several missed chances in the film's script.

Diana Nenadić

Pas, ostavljen od gospodara u automobilu, sluša radijski prijenos utakmice i usput svjedoči razbojstvu u kući preko puta. Na tome, dakako, i ostaje. Dosjetka jest, ali je zgoda razrađena i dovoljno napeta.

› A dog left in the car by his owner listens to a football match radio transmission and accidentally becomes a witness to a murder in the house across the street. Unfortunately, the story doesn't

Jura Troje

Ovaj film se na jedan nepošten način uvlači pod kožu, jednostavno je sladak. I nije ustvari ništa posebno. Dobra ideja, puno snimatelskog strpljenja, jer glavni lik očito nije akademski glumac. Puno montaže, i sve slučajnosti se mogu iskoristiti u korist radnje. Film je uspio, pali smo na njega, a poštovane čitatelje i gledatelje molim da ipak ne ostavljaju psa u automobilu, osobito ljeti!

› The film has an unfair way of getting under your skin - it is simply adorable. And it really is nothing special. An inventive idea, a lot of cinematographic patience, because the protagonist is obviously not a professional actor, and a lot of editing. All the little accidents can be used towards the story. Maloigrani film, malo glazbeni spot, ovaj uradak je najbolji u svojoj prvoj trećini kada dosadu učenika u razredu razbija njihov osjećaj za ritam i glazbu, koju režija gotovo savršeno prati i potencira. Kada priča skoči na pozornicu, ritam se paradoksalno izgubi te i ovdje vrijedi pravilo da je zamišljeno često uvjerljivije od stvarnog.

Part fiction film, part music video, this work is best in the first part when the students' boredom in the classroom is broken by their sense of rhythm and music, followed and boosted by directing decisions. When the story jumps onto the stage, paradoxically, the rhythm gets lost, so it's true here that sometimes the imagined is more powerful than the real.

Diana Nenadić

Pisanje školske zadaće pretvara se u glazbeno-plesni spektakl, a igrani film iz učionice u glazbeni spot s pozornice. Prva transformacija je u redu, druga je bila nepotrebna: glazbeni ritam je zaživio već u učionici, kroz međuigru krupnjaka i detalja, statičnih ka-drova i švenkova, slike općenito i prizornih šumova.

Writing a school assignment turns into a music and dance performance, and the fiction film in the classroom turns into a music video on the stage. The first transformation is all right, the second is unnecessary: the rhythm of the music comes alive in the classroom, in the interchange of close-ups and details, static frames and panoramas, the visual image in general and the accompanying noises.

Jura Troje

Kako pobijediti dosadu? Pokušajte maštom i nećete pogriješiti! Vrhunski snimljeno, kvalitetno i profesionalno, zanimljivo, maštovito... Počelo je kao igra dizajnja zvuka, pretvorilo se u glazbu i spektakl. Baš mi je drag ovaj film!

Što biste napravili ako vam je za vratom nešto toliko strašno da to ne možete ni predočiti? Ovaj film je na tragu Carpenterovih klasika.

› What would you do if something was after you so scary you couldn't even imagine it? The film follows in the footsteps of John Carpenter's classics.

Boško Picula

Treba li izabrati najsvestranija mladog filmaša ovogodišnje Revije i Festivala u Karlovcu, Adam Rael svakako konkurira za sam vrh. Njegov one man film o mladiću koji traga za nestalim članom obitelji evocira ponajbolje zaplete serijala Zona sumraka generirajući napetost i paranoju, i u svojoj naraciji, i u svojim krupnim kadrovima. Veoma dobro.

› If we were to vote the most passionate young filmmaker in this year's competition, Adam Rael would definitely be right at the top. His one-man film about a young man in search for a missing member of his family evokes the best of plots and twists of the Twilight Zone series, generating tension and paranoia, both through its narration and close-ups. Very good!

Diana Nenadić

Kuriozitet ovog psihološkog horora svakako je to da ga je režirao, snimio, montirao i odglumio jedan mladić. A sve je sastavnice filma savršeno držao pod kontrolom, pa ciljani učinak nelagode nije izostao. I film i njegov autor na Carpenterovu su tragu u svakom pogledu.

› The peculiarity of this psychological horror is definitely the fact that it was directed, shot, edited and acted by a single young man. He also perfectly manages to keep under control all the components of the film and, in doing so, achieves the desired effect of discomfort. The film and his author follow in Carpenter's footsteps in every respect.

Kada se snimaju filmovi o važnim društvenim temama, najveća je zamka upasti u ponavljanje i dociranje. Ovdje je to izbjegnuto na rijetko lucidan način te je pravotna zamisao dobila izvrsnu realizaciju. Ovakav dom nitko ne bi poželio, a autori do kraja ostaju sarkastični i filmski iznimno pismeni. Resko i uvjerljivo.

In making films about important social topics, the biggest trap is repetition and being condescending. That, however, is successfully avoided here in a rarely-seen lucid way and the original idea is wonderfully realized. Nobody would wish for this sort of home and the authors remain sarcastic and cinematical-ly extremely literate throughout. Sharp and convincing.

› "We have to burry it!" says the son to the father and runs away holding the bird. The father desperately tries to find him. Will he succeed?

Boško Picula

Mnogobrojna djeca, na žalost, postaju zrelijom puno prije svojih vršnjaka. No, to ne znači da su zbog toga manje djeca. Upravo o ovome na metaforičan i upečatljiv način govori film o dječaku kojega smrt ptice podsjeti na smrt majke, dok njegov otac i sam mora postati zrelijim.

› Many children, unfortunately, become mature long before their peers. But that doesn't mean they are not still children. That is precisely what this film speaks about in a metaphoric and memorable way. A story about a boy who is reminded of the death of his mother by the death of a bird, while his father, too, has to become more mature.

Diana Nenadić

Ovaj film na jednostavan način i vrlo jasnom pričom uspijeva pokazati koliko smo udaljeni jedni od drugih, ali i koliko nam malo treba za bliskost. Oca i sina koji je ostao bez majke, zbljužuje uginula ptica na cesti, ali još više dječakovo poštovanje prema beživotnom biću koje želi dostojanstvenom no sahraniti. Elegantno i toplo.

› In a simple way and with a very clear storyline, the film manages to show how distant we are from each other but also how little it takes to become closer. The father and the son who has lost his mom are brought together by a dead bird on the side of the road, but even more so by the boy's respect for the lifeless being which he wants to burry with dignity. Elegant and warm.

Jura Troje

Ovaj film, dirljiv i lijep, pokazuje kako se uz malo simbolike i dječju upornost može lakše podnijeti život, surov kakav je. Roditelji trebaju češće slušati svoju djecu i pratiti njihove reakcije. Tako je jednostavnije, lakše i pravednije!

› This touching and lovely film demonstrates how a little symbolism and child-like tenacity can make life more bearable, as hard as it is. Parents need to listen to their children a bit more and follow their reactions. That makes life simpler, easier and more just!

Boško Picula

Jesmo li zarobljenici samih sebe? Jesmo li zarobljenici života? - pitanja su na koja pokušava odgovoriti ova snažna priča o čovjeku kojega zarobi njegova zdravstvena situacija i koji kroz pojedine dijelove dana, jutro, poslijepodne, večer, traži unutarnju slobodu. Naoko turobna priča, film je u završnici itekako poticajan u odgovorima na početna pitanja.

› "Are we our own prisoners? Are we the prisoners of life?" are some of the questions this film tries to answer. A powerful story about a man who becomes trapped by his health and who, during the day - in the morning, afternoon, evening - searches for inner freedom. At first glance, a sad story but in the end the film is more than inspirational in answering these questions.

Diana Nenadić

Ovo je priča o samoći koja najprije poetizira, a onda odveć patetizira uz pomoć glazbe, ali je solidno režirana i dizajnirana uporabom hladno-sivih tonova.

› This is a story about being alone, made at first poetic and later overly pathetic through the use of music, but also solidly directed and "designed" through the use of cold, gray tones.

Jura Troje

Ne treba puno prostora niti teksta za dobar film! Ovo je jedan dobar, dobar film. A tako je jednostavan, i težak, i komplikiran! Počinje s prikazom potpune slobode kako ju i ja doživljavam. Ova filmska poezija tematizira ljubavnu čežnju mladića koji predmet(e) svoje žudnje promatra kroz objektiv fotografskog aparata.

› This cinematic poetry dramatizes a young man's amorous yearning for the object(s) of his desire whom he observes through the lens of his camera.

Boško Picula

Nije lako voljeti, a ne izreći ljubav. Glavnom junaku u filmu stoga pomaže objektiv fotoaparata, a samoj priči ovaj film koji do posljednje replike pametno "čuva" svoj obrat. Pozadinska naracija naglašava neizrecivost središnje dvojbe, dok bi u suptilnom prikazu ljubavno-prijateljskog trokuta i puno iskusniji filmaši mogli štošta naučiti.

› It is not easy to feel love and not say it. This protagonist is, therefore, aided by the lens of his camera, while the film saves its twist till the very last line. The background narration emphasizes the inexpressibility of the central dilemma, while, even much more experienced filmmakers could learn from the subtlety of representation of the love-friendship triangle.

Diana Nenadić

Unutarnji monolog u voice-overu vrlo je čest, ali katkada i dramaturški neopravдан postupak u novijim filmovima mlađih. Srećom, to se ne može reći za ovaj iznimno poetičan film.

› An interior monologue in voice-over is very common but sometimes an uncalled-for narrative procedure in recent films made by young people. Luckily, that does not apply to this exceptionally poetic film.

Jura Troje

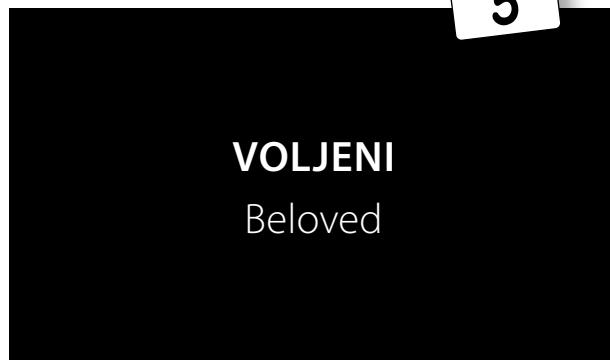

Velika bol u malom formatu. Svi se počinjemo ponašati kao djeca kada se nešto ne usudimo reći ili napraviti. Lijepi šumski kadrovi i poigravanje s dubinskom oštrinom. S dva subjektivna kadra rečeno je puno više nego s leptirićima koji su možda i suvišni. U svakom slučaju, lijep, kvalitetan i snažan film.

› Great pain in a small format. All of us start acting like children when we don't dare say or do something. Lovely shots in the woods and experimentation with sharpness. Two subjective shots say a lot more than the butterflies which are perhaps superfluous. In any case, a lovely, well-made and powerful film.

Mladi snimaju fotografije, mlađi snimaju filmove, mladi snimaju filmove o mladima koji snimaju fotografije. Uredan reportažni prikaz susreta mladih fotografa trebao je biti odvažniji u eksperimentiranju spojem dviju umjetnosti jer je sve nekako bez stvaračkog uzbudjenja kakvo sigurno prati rad na fotografiji i filmu. Solidno.

Povijest umjetnosti prikazana je u ovom filmu kao tok svijesti unutar sasvim uobičajene situacije.

› The history of art represented by a backward stream of consciousness within a perfectly usual situation.

Boško Picula

Kao prezentacija na satu povijesti umjetnosti, film bi zaslužio čistu peticu. Kao film donosi nadahnuto kombiniranje igranog i eksperimentalnog segmenta pri čemu je potonji najoriginalniji u duhovitim intervencijama u klasicima svjetske umjetnosti. Da je ovo kombiniranje izvedeno čvrše i dramski posloženje, sve bi bilo još bolje.

› As a presentation in an art history class at school the film would get a straight A. As a film, it offers an inspired combination of live action and experimental segments, the latter being the most original part, in its witty interventions to the classics of world art. If this combination had been done more firmly and had it been narratively better organized, the result would have been even better.

Diana Nenadić

Film je rađen prema prokušanom modelu: na ekranu gledamo košmar, a na kraju doznamo da je sve bio san. Specifičnost je ovog "usnulog" djelca što rubni igrani dijelovi (sa spavačem) pokušavaju opravdati središnji eksperimentalni košmar, kolaž digitalno animiranih arheoloških razglednica.

› The film follows a tried-out model: we watch a nightmare on screen only to find out in the end it was all a dream. What is particular about this "sleeping" accomplishment is that the live action segments at the either end of the film (showing the sleeping man) try to justify the central experimental nightmare – a collage of digitally animated archaeological postcards.

Jura Troje

Zanimljivo poigravanje umjetničkim djelima, njihovom "nadogradnjom", ritmom, glazbom, tempom... Uvijek me zbujuje taj slobodni stil. Ustvari, jedini kriterij je subjektivan. Meni je ovo fora.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Riječ je o kratkom eksperimentalnom filmu koji briše granice između stvarnosti i imaginacije istražujući povezanost čovjeka i prirode.

› This experimental film blurs boundaries between reality and imagination by exploring the connectedness of humans and nature.

Boško Picula

Film koji na efektan način istražuje granicu između sadašnjosti i sutrašnjice, zbilje i mašte te čovjeka i onoga što ga okružuje, djeluje kao ekranizirana poezija. Začudan spoj glazbe, slike, ritma i kompozicije kadra ostavlja višenego dobar dojam unatoč nedorečenosti. Ili je to i bio cilj?

› The film very effectively explores the boundaries between the present and the future, reality and imagination, human beings and what surrounds them, and it looks like poetry put on screen. This unique combination of music, image, rhythm and composition leaves a great impression despite its vagueness. But perhaps that was the point.

Diana Nenadić

Čudne djevojke i mistična šuma; slow motion i podijeljeni ekran; sintetična glazba i digitalni efekti - inventar su ove estetizirane vinjete bez naslućujućeg smisla i značenja.

› Strange girls and a mystical forest; slow motion and split screens; synthetic music and digital effects are the inventory of this stylized vignette without discernible sense and meaning.

Jura Troje

Lijepa igra formatima, efektima, usporenim snimkama, višestrukim slikama. Video i glazba su dobro stopljeni i djeluju umirujuće.

› A nice play of formats, effects, slow motion, multiple images... The video and music are fused nicely and have a soothing effect.

Boško Picula

Slobodan stil u filmu katkada postaje presloboden i sam sebi svrhom. Ne i u ovom filmu koji na zadanu temu, mladi na potezu, kreira interesantan prolaz kroz poligon koji dvije djevojke koriste za izražavanje vlastitih mogućnosti i kreativnosti. Zapravo, autori filma su na veoma dobar način izrazili svoje mogućnosti i kreativnost.

› Freestyle in film sometimes becomes too loose and its own purpose. But not in this film which uses the pre-set theme - of young people in action - to create an interesting passage through the platform which these two girls use for expressing their own abilities and creativity. Actually, the authors of the film have expressed their own abilities and creativity very well.

Diana Nenadić

Solidna "koreografija" s dvije "plesačice" koje svladavaju prepreke. Film je zapravo reklama za neku europsku akciju povezana s mladima, ali o čemu je točno riječ, teško je reći. Kad je namjenski film u pitanju, to je neznanje malko nezgodno.

› A solid "choreography" of two "dancers" who overcome obstacles. The film is really a promotional film for a European youth initiative, but of what kind, it is hard to tell. When it comes to commissioned films, this sort of information, though, should be crucial.

Jura Troje

Maštovito rješenje postavljenog problema. Izvrsno montiran i pažljivo do detalja izrađen film. Budući da je rađen namjenski, film pokazuje kako se lijepo može montirati u ritmu, ako imamo snimljeno dovoljno dobrih kadrova. I kako nešto besmisleno film može pretvoriti u zanimljivih minuti i pol.

› A creative solution to a preset problem. Excellent editing and executed in detail, however, since it is a commissioned film, it shows how skilful, rhythmic editing can be done, if you have enough shot material... And how a film can turn something meaningless into an interesting minute and a half.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Grupa djece sinkronizira pjesmu "Ella" pjevačice Bebe na temu ženskih prava. Može se reći da se radi o spotu.

› A group of kids synchronizes the song "Ella" by Spanish singer Bebe about women's rights. It could be said to be a music video.

Boško Picula

"Danas ćeš otkriti da je cijeli svijet tvoj", pjeva se to u ovom razigranu glazbenom spotu mladih španjolaca čiji je one cut pravo malo putovanje njihovom školom, ali i njihovim poimanjem svijeta iz pjesme. Kad si mlađ, doista otkrivaš da je cijeli svijet tvoj, osobito kada stane u jedan kadar. Ništa spektakularno, ali spektakularno zabavno za sve.

› "Today you will find out the world is yours," goes the lyric of this playful music video made by young Spanish kids whose one-shot film is a real journey through their school but also their idea of the world in the song. When you're young, you really do discover the whole world is yours, especially if it fits into one shot. Nothing spectacular, but spectacularly fun for everyone.

Diana Nenadić

Premda se temelji na eksperimentalnoj dosjetki - likovi se kreću unatrag i jedan po jedan ulaze u kadar sve dok se pred kamерom ne skupi cijeli školski razred, ovaj plesno-glazbeni video u jed-nom kadru djeluje vedro i prilično opušteno. A to je puno.

› Though it is based on an experimental pun – the characters move backwards and one by one enter the frame until the whole class is in front of the camera – this dancing-music video in one shot seems cheerful and pretty relaxed. And that is a lot.

Jura Troje

Lagano trash, ali vrijedi pogledati. Spot je snimljen s dvadesetak glumaca, u jednometre kadru, pokretan, pozitivan i veselo. Vjerojatno plod dugih proba i punotrudna.

› Slightly trashy but worth seeing. The video was done with about twenty actors, in one shot, it is dynamic, positive and cheerful. It is probably the result of a lot of rehearsing and a lot of hard work.

Što će snimiti kamera koju se vuče po polju u anarchičnoj potrazi za smislom kaosa? Bogme, puno toga. Film djeluje kao vizualizacija neke matematičke formule prepune nepoznanica. Kaotični ples slike uhvaćene izmrcvarenim objektivom nije za one slabog želuca, ali jest za sve koji vole uspjeli filmski eksperiment.

What will a camera record when it's dragged through the field in an anarchic quest for the meaning of chaos? Well, a lot of things. The film seems like a visual representation of a mathematical formula full of unknown variables. The chaotic dance of images caught by the tortured lens is not for the faint-hearted, but it is recommended for all those who like a successful film experiment.

Diana Nenadić

Kako izgleda poznati svijet snimljen kamerom kojom ne upravlja ljudska ruka nego uzica? Odgovor koji daje ovaj metodološki eksplicitan film, snimljen potezanjem mobitela po travi, mogao bi glasiti: neprepoznatljivo ili dru-gačje, ali ne i manje uzbudljivo.

How does the well-known world look when shot by a camera controlled not by a human hand but by a chord? The answer is given in this film which lays bare its methodology and is shot by dragging a cell phone through the grass, and it could be unrecognizable and different, but no less exciting.

Jura Troje

Mrcvarenje GoPro-a po šumama i močvarama... Čak je ispalo vrlo zanimljivo. A da je maknut onaj plastični irritantni zvuk i dizajniran novi, film bi dobio novu dimenziju i imao bi šansu biti izvrstan. Tada bismo gledali neko novo djelo, a ne bismo razmišljali o mrcvarenju kamere.

Torturing GoPro around the woods and swamplands... It actually turned out quite impressive! Taking away the fake plastic sound and designing a new one would have added a new dimension, making it even better! Then we could watch this new artistic work and not think about torturing the camera.

Sinopsis › Synopsis:

Mladi usamljeni muškarac otvara vrata percepcije i odlazi u drugu dimenziju u kojoj su vrijeme i prostor nebitni.
 › A lonely young man opens the door of perception and enters a different dimension in which time and space are irrelevant...

Boško Picula

Brza izmjena kadrova, žestok ritam i odlično likovno izražavanje vodeće su odlike ovog filma slobodnoga stila koji svojim konceptom zaziva upravo stalnu čovjekovu potrebu za slobodom i otvaranjem novih vrata percepcije. Vizualno sugestivno, ali strukturom ipak na pola puta priželjkivane realizacije.

› A quick exchange of shots, fierce rhythm and excellent visual expression are the strong points of this freestyle film. Its concept evokes man's constant need for freedom and for opening new doors of perception. Visually very suggestive but structurally still only halfway through.

Diana Nenadić

Nadrealističko-psihodelični eksperiment s dosta intervencija u postojeće filmove. Okvir je fokusirani pogled mladića kojem autorica prišiva kaotičnu vizuru kao dominantu filma.

› A surrealist-psychodelic experiment with a lot of interventions into the existing films. The frame is the focused gaze of the young man to whom the author attributes the chaotic vision as the film's dominant.

Jura Troje

Super izgleda. Još jedan film koji ovisi o lijepim kadrovima, a ne o scenariju. Kadrove snimi voditelj i onda učenici to izvrsno montiraju, očito nadareni i uvježbani za umjetničko izražavanje. Ni sam sretan s tim.

› It looks great. Another film that depends on beautiful shots and not on the script. It was shot by the group leader and then edited by students who are obviously gifted and skilled at expressing themselves artistically.... I'm not too happy about that.

ZA SVAKOGA PO NEŠTO! POPRATNI PROGRAM

Uz bogati natjecateljski program, Reviju i Festival već tradicionalno karakterizira i više nego raznolik popratni program koji je namijenjen uistinu svim korisnicima: gostima Revije i festivala (kako mladim autorima, tako i njihovim mentorima), karlovačkim osnovnoškolcima i srednjoškolcima, ali i široj publici. Ove godine popratni program podijeljen je u nekoliko segmenta:

- Edukativni program namijenjen je mladim autorima i mentorima. S jedne strane autore upoznaje sa sličnim festivalima na koje mogu prijaviti svoje filmove, a mentorima daje mogućnost učenja drugačijih modela medijske pedagogije od onih njima dosad poznatih. Detaljnije informacije o programu očekuju vas na stranicama koje slijede.

- Program Dubovac Open Air od ove se godine ne odaziva više na navedeno ime. Prostor održavanja ostaje isti, no umjesto filmova s Pule, on ugošćava nekadašnje pobjednike Revije i Festivala, a danas prave filmske profesionalce, čime se zatvara svojevrsni krug. Kakav?

SIDE PROGRAMME SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY!

Saznat ćete ili na Dubovcu ili na kojoj od sljedećih stranica.

• Program Žute zastave de-taljno je objašnjen na počet-nim stranicama ovog katalo-ga. Okosnica istog je debata na temu eventualne predikatiza-cije filmova sukladno njiho-vom, prvenstveno nasilnom, sa-držaju. U debati ove godine po-prvi puta sudjeluju i karlovački srednjoškolci.

• Program Filmski 5+ uz Dukatinu namijenjen je najmla-dim filmove, onima vrtićke i osnovnoškolske dobi. Ovogodišnji aduti Dukatinovog programa su Andersenove bajke.

• Glazbeni program ugošću-je ponajbolje karlovačke mlade bendove (ovoga puta riječ je o Pobuni kmeta Janka i Slobodnom ulazu) te već stalnu posjetiteljicu Revije i Festivala, nekad blagaj-nicu, a danas DJ-icu, Blagajnicu koja hoće ići na more.

• Dukat Mlijeko u potrazi za filmom interaktivna je nagrad-na igra pod pokroviteljstvom u kojoj sudjeluju predstavnici svih karlovačkih srednjih škola. Po ci-jelom gradu u dva sata skupljaju dijelove zagonetne filmske sla-galice, a u pauzi se okrepljuju pi-ćem pokrovitelja.

"Za svakoga po nešto", piše u naslovu. A tako i jest.

› In addition to the rich com-petition programme, the YFF and FRFF are traditionally character-ized by an exceptionally rich and diverse side programme, offering a treat for literally all the visi-tors: the festival guests (both the young authors and their men-tors), primary and secondary students from Karlovac schools and also for general audience. This year, the side programme is divided into several segments:

• The educational pro-gramme is dedicated to young authours and their mentors – on the one hand, introducing the authours to similar festivals to which they can send their films, on the other, providing the mentors with an opportunity to learn about models of teaching me-dia different from the ones they have already used. More infor-mation about the educational programme can be found on the pages that follow.

• Dubovac Open Air pro-gramme now stands for some-thing else. The venue is the same, only instead of the films from the Pula Film Festival, it showcases former winners of the YFF and FRFF, today real film profes-sionals, which means we have come a full circle. What sort of a circle? You will find out either at the Dubovac venue or on the fol-lowing pages.

• The Yellow Flag pro-gramme is explained in detail at the beginning of this catalogue. At its core there is the debate on the topic of setting film ratings with regard to their content, violence in the first place. For the first time, high school students from Karlovac will also be partic-ipating in the debate.

• The programme Film 5+ with Dukatinu is designed for the youngest cinephiles, those of kindergarten and primary school age. The aces of Dukatinu's pro-gramme this year are films based on Hans Christian Andersen's fairy tales.

• The music programme

hosts the best young bands form Karlovac (this time they are Pobuna kmeta Janka and Slobo-dan ulaz) and, by now, the tradi-tional guest of the YFF and FRFF, once a cashier girl, today a DJ, who goes by the name Blagajni-ca hoće ići na more.

• Dukat Milk in search of film is an interactive competi-tion sponsored by Cedevita, with students from all high schools in Karlovac participating in the competition. During two hours, the players will collect the piec-es of a film puzzle all around the town and, during breaks, refresh themselves with beverages from the sponsor.

Something for everyone, just as the title says.

EDUKATIVNI PROGRAM

Od samih početaka održavanja Revije i Festivala u Karlovcu, edukativni program bio je važan segment. Počelo se s jednom jedinom radionicom igranog filma u jednom kadru, da bi prošle godine bilo organizirano čak pet različitih radionica. Ovogodišnji program uvodi određene izmjene. Naime, edukativni program ove će godine biti namijenjen i voditeljima i autorima, a ne samo autorima kako je to bilo dosad. Za voditelje je pripremljena prezentacija četiri uspješne video-družine: T vindit iz Norveške, Station Next iz Danske, Screenagers iz Njemačke i FKVK Zaprešić iz Zaprešića. Nakon prezentacije bit će održana i diskusija na temu djelovanja videodružina u današnje vrijeme u kojem vrlo često učenici preuzimaju uloge voditelja. U isto vrijeme, za mlade će autore biti pripremljeno predavanje ovogodišnjeg člana žirija dr. Davea Whitta na temu: Ne boj se tišine, crno-bijelog filma ni Građanina Kanea: promišljajući povijest filma. Također, kao i dosadašnjih godina, i autori i mentorи moći će uživati u programu Srednjoškolci predstavljaju srednjoškolcima, u okviru kojeg će biti predstavljena četiri filmska festivala: Youki i Media Literacy Award (Nagrada za poticanje medijske pismenosti) iz Austrije, Barents Ecology Film Festival iz Rusije, te The European Independent Film Festival iz Francuske. Predstavljanje ova dva austrijska festivala podupire Austrijski kulturni forum u Zagrebu.

Since the early days of YFF and FRFF in Karlovac, its educational programme has always been an important segment of the festival. It started out with only one workshop on film made in a single shot, while last year there were five educational workshops in the programme. This year, certain changes have been introduced, that is, the educational programme now offers something for both mentors and students, and not just the students, as it was the case before. For the mentors and group leaders we have prepared a presentation of four successful videogroups: T vindit from Norway, Station Next from Denmark, Screenagers from Germany and Zaprešić Photo, Film & Video Club from Croatia. After the presentation there will be a discussion on the functioning of videogroups today, when pupils themselves often take on the role of group leaders. At the same time, the young authors can attend the lecture presented by this year's jury member, Dave Whitt, Ph.D., entitled: Don't be Afraid of Silence, Black and White or Citizen Kane: Appreciating Film History. As was the case in the previous years, both the authors and their mentors will also be able to enjoy the programme High School Kids for High School Kids which will showcase four film festivals: Youki and Media Literacy Award from Austria, Barents Ecology Film Festival from Russia and The European Independent Film Festival from France. The presentation of the two Austrian festivals is supported by the Austrian Cultural Forum in Zagreb.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMME

Pokretne slike kao oblik umjetnosti sežu u vrijeme s kraja 19. stoljeća. No, unatoč dugovječnosti i popularnosti ovoga medija, mnogi od onih koji se smatraju fanatičnim ljubiteljima filma slabo poznaju filmsku povijest i zaziru od filmova napravljenih od ere nijemog filma pa sve do 80-ih godina 20. stoljeća. Ovom se prezentacijom želi ohrabriti mlade u proširivanju znanja o filmu, putem rasprave o nekima od važnijih djela iz povijesti filma i osvrćući se na nekoliko ključnih događaja koji su utjecali na sadržaj filma, te se želi pomoći mlađima da razviju vlastite filmske ciljeve na svom stvaralačkom putu.

As an art form, the history of motion pictures dates back to the late 1800s. However, despite the longevity and popularity of this medium, many people who consider themselves "film fanatics" are unfamiliar with film history and intimidated by movies dating from the silent era to as far as the 1980s. The purpose of this presentation is to encourage students to expand their knowledge of motion pictures by discussing some important films of the past, reviewing several significant events that shaped film content, and suggesting how they can develop personal film goals in their journey as filmmakers.

Norveški grad Tromsø otvorio je kuću za mlade 8. lipnja 2000. godine. Ime je izabrano na sastanku savjeta mladih, 12. siječnja 2000. godine, i odnosi se na "pika" u igri "lovice" gdje te nitko ne može uloviti. Tvbitt je kuća kulture za mlade u dobi od 15 do 25 godina. Tvbitt se sastoji od kafića, rekreacijskog centra i filmske kuće. Jedan je od osnivača festivala Nordic Youth Film Festival (NUFF) putem kojega surađuje s različitim kulturnim institucijama i festivalima. Veza između Tvbitta i NUFF-a vrlo je nalik onoj koju Kinoklub Karlovac ima s Four River Film Festivalom. Tvbitt organizira redovite aktivnosti za mlade kao što su: koncerti, hip-hop/break dance satovi, filmske skupine, fotografске skupine, radionice kreativnog pisanja i mnoge druge. Više informacija možete potražiti na www.tvbit.net.

Tvbitt is comprised of a café, a health-centre for youth and the Tvbitt Filmhouse. It is one of the founders of the Nordic Youth Film Festival, through which it cooperates with different cultural institutions and festivals. More or less, their relationship bears close resemblance to the connection that the Cinema Club Karlovac has with the FRFF. Tvbitt organizes regular activities for young people, such as: concerts, hip-hop/break dance classes, film groups, photography groups, writing classes and many others. Screenagersi su znatiteljni. Screenagresi su kreativni. Screenagersi su odgovorni. Screenagersi žele znati više. Screenagersi su uvijek na visini zadatka. Ovim riječima Screenagresi opisuju sami sebe. Riječ je o filmskim radionicama u trajanju od jednog do dva tjedna u kojima sudjeluje deset mladih filmaša. No mjesto na radionici im nije garantirano – za njega se natječu. Sama radionica održava se u tri faze: priprema (preprodukacija), snimanje (produkacija) i montaža (postprodukacija). Naravno, filmovi nastali kao produkti radionica žive i nakon samih radionica - na nacionalnim i međunarodnim filmskim festivalima. Jedan od filmova ove se godine prikazuje u okviru festivalskog programa.

› Screenagers are curious. Screenagers are creative. Screenagers are responsible. Screenagers want to know more. Screenagers are always up to the task. This is how Screenagers describe themselves. These are film workshops which take place over a week or up to two weeks, with the participation of ten young filmmakers. Their participation in the workshop, however, is not guaranteed – they have to earn it. The workshop itself is organized in three phases: preparation (pre-production), shooting (production) and editing (post-production). Naturally, the films made at the workshops do have their lives beyond the project – at national and international film festivals; one of them will be screened in competition at this year Karlovac festival.

Rad s medijima u školi može biti mnogo toga: složeno, raznoliko, dvoznačno i uzbudljivo iskustvo. Bilo da se želi kritički pristupiti sadržaju medija ili samome mediju, u idealnim uvjetima, oni su usko povezani. Media Literacy Award ima za cilj potaknuti učenike i povećati njihovu sposobnost čitanja i proizvodnje medijskih tekstova. MLA je nagrada za najbolji i najinovativniji obrazovni projekt u okviru europskih škola. Organizira je Ministarstvo obrazovanja, umjetnosti i kulture Republike Austrije i održava se svake godine u Beču. Na MLA se mogu prijaviti radovi u sljedećim kategorijama: video, audio, tiskani mediji i stripovi, te multimedija i novi mediji, dok radovi mogu pripadati svim temama i žanrovima. Radovi trebaju biti inovativni, zabavni, originalni, uzbudljivi i/ili eksperimentalni. Iduće izdanje MLA-a održat će se od 6. do 8. studenog 2012. godine. Više informacija možete naći na http://www.mediamanual.at/mediamanual/projekte/eng_mla.php.

Involvement with media at school can be a multi-faceted experience - at the same time complex, diverse, ambiguous and exciting. If one wants to criticise its content or the media itself – ideally, the former is closely related to the latter - the media literacy award is intended to motivate pupils and increase their ability to read and produce media texts. Media Literacy Award is an award for the best and most innovative educational media projects in European schools. It is organized by the Federal Ministry for Education, the Arts and Culture and it is held annually in Vienna. The following categories can be entered for the MLA: Video, Audio, Print media & Comics, Multimedia & New media. Entries can include all themes and genres but they should be innovative, amusing, original, exciting and/or experimental. Next MLA edition is going to be held in November of 2012, from 6th to 8th. YOUKI je živa komunikacijska platforma za popularizaciju medijske kulture. U suštini, može se reći da je YOUKI sveobuhvatno i strastveno slavljenje medija. Festivalski međunarodni natjecateljski program predstavlja izuzetne kratke filmove redatelja (do 20 minuta) u dobi od 10 do 26 godina. Od oko 500 filmova koji se prijave na natjecanje, godišnje ih se prikaze sedamdesetak sa svih kontinenata. Zato je YOUKI trenutno najveći medijski festival u usponu koji uz to ima i međunarodni fokus. YOUKI također objedinjuje različite inicijative: teorijske i praktične radionice o filmu, tiskanim medijima, radiju i internetu, posebne uredničke programe kao što je susret "Media Meeting", umjetničke projekte, uključujući i intervencije u urbani prostor, kao i svakodnevne koncerte, zabave i još mnogo toga. Festival YOUKI održava se svake godine u Welsu, u Gornjoj Austriji, i okuplja raznoliku publiku: ljubitelje filma, filmske profesionalce, medijske entuzijaste, profesore medijske kulture i, naravno, mlade redatelje. Iduće izdanje festivala YOUKI bit će održano od 20. do 24. prosinca ove godine. Više informacije možete potražiti na www.youki.at.

YOUKI is a vivid communication platform for popularization of media culture. Essentially, YOUKI may be described as a comprehensive and passionate celebration of media. The festival's 'International Film Competition' showcases outstanding short films (up to 20 minutes) by directors aged 10 to 26. Out of about 500 competition-submissions, YOUKI annually screens about 70 films from all continents. It is therefore Austria's biggest up-and-coming media festival with an international focus. Beyond that, YOUKI encompasses various initiatives: workshops on theory and practice in film, print media, radio and internet, curated special programs like the discursive "Media Meeting", art projects including media invasions in urban space, as well as daily concerts, parties and much more. The YOUKI Festival is held annually in Wels, Upper Austria, and gathers a diverse young audience: film enthusiasts, industry professionals, media fans, media teachers and – naturally – young filmmakers. The next edition of YOUKI is going to be held 20th – 24th November, 2012. For more information, please visit www.youki.at.

ÉCU – Europski festival nezavisnog filma, sa sjedištem u Parizu, nastoji otkriti i predstaviti najbolje nezavisne filmove iz cijelog svijeta. Filmovi na festivalu ocjenjuju se prema kvaliteti, kreativnosti i inovativnosti, kako formom tako i sadržajem, i natječu se za 25 nagrada u 15 kategorija. ÉCU u potpunosti vjeruje u talent i potencijal svih filmova koje izabere, stoga ih nastoji prikazati pred što većim brojem ljudi. Na taj način nudi alternativu ljubiteljima filma i svima koji nisu skloni velikim komercijalnim studijskim projektima. Iz tog razloga, festival svake godine posjećuju brojni agenti, lovci na talente, predstavnici producijskih kuća, distributeri i producenti u potrazi za novim talentom. Osmo izdanie Europskog festivala nezavisnog filma bit će održano od 29. do 31. ožujka 2013. godine. Za dodatne informacije posjetite internetsku stranicu: www.ecufilmfestival.com.

NEKAD LAUREATI REVIE, A DANAS?

Protekla tri festivalsko-revija-ska (ili revijsko-festivalska) izdaja Stari grad Dubovac obilježio je Dubovac Open Air program. Bio je to najčešće program filma prikazanih na Festivalu igranog filma u Puli. Tako su zvijezde Starog grada bile Branko Schmidt s "Metastazama", Rajko Grlić s "Neka ostane među nama", Tomislav Radić s "Kotlovinom" i dr. Od ove godine zvijezdama Starog grada postaje netko drugi - oni koji su i sami nekada bili zvijezde Filmske revije mladeži - njezini laureati. Tako će se kroz program "Nekad laureati Revije, a danas?" zapravo pratiti bivši Revijski po-bjednici - i to oni koji su uistinu izabrali filmsku umjetnost kao svoju profesiju. Ove godine ispod dubovačkog "spotlighta" naći će se Dario Lonjak i Ivan Kelava.

Dario Lonjak, filmski i TV redatelj, inače Karlovčanin, proizašao je upravo iz Kinokluba Karlovac, odnosno Videodružine Gimnazije Karlovac, čija je vrata otvorio davne 2001. godine još kao osnovnoškolac, uopće se ne osvrćući na činjenicu da je Videodružina Gimnazije Karlovac zapravo tada bilo isključivo srednjoškolska filmska družina. Već 2001. godine u Čakovcu na Reviji hrvatskog filmskog i video stvaralaštva djece i mladeži on osvaja 1. nagradu u kategoriji dokumentarnog filma svojim spotom "Selo moje malo". Godinu dana kasnije na Reviji u Pagu osvaja čak tri nagrade, dviјe od strane publike, a jednu (i to prvu) u otvorenoj kategoriji i to ne djece, već mladeži za glazbeni spot "Marlenis". Naime, žiri je zaključio da, iako je rad prijavljen u kategoriju osnovnoškolaca, isti jednostavno odskače i prebacio je film u viši starosni rang. Svoju Revijsku žetvu nagrada Dario je završio u Đurđevcu 2005. godine kada je zaigrani film "Zora" osvojio drugu nagradu. Godinu dana kasnije Dario je upisao smjer filmske i TV režije na Akademiji dramske umjetnosti u Zagrebu.

Ivan Kelava, filmski i TV producent također je proizašao iz jednog malenog, ali iznimno uspješnog kinokluba, Studija kreativnih ideja Gunja iz Gunje. Iako je upravo u okviru SKIG-a prve uspjehе postizao na području novinarstva (gdje je sudjelovao i na Državnim smotrama Lidrano), film je očito bila ljubav na drugi pogled. Na Revijskoj sceni pojавio se u Đurđevcu, 2005. godine kada je zajedno s kolegom Sašom Dugonjićem za dokumentarni film "Prognoza: vedro i sunčano" osvojio drugu nagradu. Na istoj pozornici, jedan do drugog našli su se, a da i ne znaju, budući kolege: redatelj Dario (Lonjak) i producent Ivan (Kelava). Godinu dana kasnije, na Reviji u Samoboru Saša i Ivan osvojili su dokumentarnim filmom "Carpe Diem" treću nagradu. Iste godine Ivan upisuje smjer filmske, TV i kazališne produkcije na Akademiji dramske umjetnosti u Zagrebu.

Izuzev njihovih recentnih radova, kao svojevrsna uvertira na starom gradu Dubovcu, bit će prikazani i Ivanovi i Darijevi prvi filmski radovi: "Selo moje malo" i "Prognoza: vedro i sunčano".

› During the last three editions of YFF and FRFF, the old Dubovac citadel was marked by the Dubovac Open Air programme. It consisted mostly of films screened at the Pula Film Festival. The stars of the old citadel were, therefore, Branko Schmidt with "Metastases", Rajko Grlić and his "Just Between Us", Tomislav Radić with "Kotlovina" etc. This year, in a way, the stars at Dubovac are of a different sort – the people who were, once upon a time, themselves stars of the Youth Film Festival – its laureates. Thus, the programme "Once Laureates of YFF, and Today?" showcases previous YFF winners – students who later chose film art as their profession. This year, then, the Dubovac spotlight will be aimed at Dario Lonjak and Ivan Kelava.

› Dario Lonjak is a film and TV director, actually born and bred in Karlovac, who has come out of the Cinema Club Karlovac, that is, the Karlovac Gimnasium Video Group, first joining it in 2001, while still in primary school and not minding one bit that the Video Group at the time admitted only high school students. The same year, he won the first prize in the category of documentary film at the Croatian Youth and Children Film and Video Revue (in Čakovec), with his video "My Little Village". A year later, at the Revue in Pag, he won three prizes, two from the audience and one (the first one) in the freestyle form, and not in the children's programme but the programme for youth, for the music video "Marlenis". The jury decided that even though the film was entered in the primary school competition, it simply stood out so much that they moved it to a higher age group. He completed his award collection at the Revue held in Đurđevac in 2005, winning the second place with the film "Zora". A year later he enrolled in the Academy of Dramatic Art in Zagreb to study Film, TV and Theatre Production.

› Ivan Kelava is a film and TV producer who also comes from a small and extremely successful

cinema club, the Studio of Creative Ideas Gunja. Even though his first success within the Gunja studio (SKIG) came in the field of journalism (he participated in Lidrano, the national literature, drama and journalism festivals), film had obviously been his love "at second sight". He appeared on the festival scene in 2005, at the Revue in Đurđevac where, together with colleague Saša Dugonjić, he won the second prize for the film "Forecast: Clear and Sunny". That day, two future colleagues, Dario (Lonjak) and Ivan (Kelava) met on the same stage, side by side, without even knowing it yet. A year later, at the Revue in Samobor, Saša and Ivan won the third place with their film "Carpe Diem" and that same year, Ivan enrolled in the Academy of Dramatic Art in Zagreb to study Film, TV and Theatre Production.

› In addition to their recent films, the warm-up at the old Dubovac fortress will be the screening of Ivan's and Dario's first films: "My Little Village" and "Forecast: Clear and Sunny".

Dario Lonjak, filmski i TV re-datelj, rođen je 1987. godine u Karlovcu gdje završava osnovnu školu i Gimnaziju, opći smjer. Od 2001. godine član je Kinokluba Karlovac, u čijoj produkciji radi nekolicinu kratkih filmova (uglavnom igranih te videospotova), od kojih neki dobivaju nagrade na domaćim i inozemnim festivalima. Nakon završetka srednje škole 2006. godine, upisuje Akademiju dramske umjetnosti. Kroz pet godina studija na akademiji radi kratke dokumentarne i igrane filmove: Dan mrtvih, Srećko, Tjelesne tekućine, Brat moj, Zorgazam te Ugovor. Radio je i kao asistent režije na dugometražnim i kratkometražnim filmovima redatelja Branka Schmidta, Darija Plejića i Kristijana Milića.

SREĆKO (dokumentarni; 2008; 28')

Pogled na život iz perspektive netipičnog ratnog invalida Srećka koji dokoličari na najrazličitije moguće načine te se prisjeća ratnih dana. Film pokušava prikazati što se skrivaiza čovjeka teškog 202 kg, prekrivenog nekolicinom nacističkih tetovaža, koji boluje od teškog stupnja PTSP-a, a pri-tom nikada ne skida smiješak s lica.

DAN MRTVIH (igrani; 2008; 11')

Robert, glavni junak filma, ima veoma neobičan dan. Po prvi puta vozi svoju novu limuzinu i njome odlazi na posao. No, odmah po dolasku na posao dobiva otkaz. Po povratku kući sazna-je da ga žena vara, a naposljetku, lokalni mu lopov pokuša ukrasti auto. Robi uzima pravdu u svoje ruke i rješava probleme na 'jednostavniji' način.

UGOVOR (igrani; 2011; 16')

Poduzetnik Ante nakon burne večeri budi se u parku na klupi. Odlazi odvjetniku potpisati sporni ugovor kojim dobiva pravo na proširenje svog pogrebnog poduzeća, no time izbacuje samohranu majku na ulicu. Ante ne shvaća da njegov potpis ne utječe samo na njezinu sudbinu.

Dario Lonjak is a film and TV director born in 1987 in Karlovac where he also finished primary and secondary school. Since 2001 he has been an active member of the Cinema Club Karlovac where he made several short films (mostly music videos) produced by the cinema club, some of which have won awards at festivals in Croatia and abroad. After graduating from high school in 2006, he enrolled in the Academy of Dramatic Art in Zagreb. During his studies he has made documentary and fiction shorts: Day of the Dead, Srećko, Bodily Fluids, Zorgasm and Contract. He worked as second assistant director on feature and short films by Branko Schmidt, Dario Plejić and Kristijan Milić.

SREĆKO (documentary; 2008; 28')

We take a look at the life from the point of view of an unusual war invalid, Srećko, who idles his time away and reminisces about the war. The film tries to portray the 100-pound war veteran sporting several Nazi tattoos and suffering from a severe form of PTSD and who, at the same time, never takes off his smile.

nature will affect more than just her fate.

DAY OF THE DEAD (fiction; 2008; 11')

The protagonist of the film, Robert, is having a very unusual day. He is driving his new limo for the first time and is on his way to work. But as soon as he gets there, he gets fired. Returning home, he finds out his wife is cheating on him and, finally, a local thief tries to steal his car. Robi takes justice into his own hands and solves the problems 'the simple way'.

CONTRACT (fiction; 2011; 16')

An entrepreneur named Ante wakes up on a park bench after a raucous night. He goes to his lawyer's office to sign the contract which will grant him the right to expand his undertaker business, but in the process ends up kicking out into the street a single mother. However, what Ante does not realise is that his sig-

VEČER PRODUCENTA IVANA KELAVE

Author night of producer
Ivan Kelava

Ivan Kelava rođen je u Brčkom, Bosna i Hercegovina, 1987. godine. Apsolvent je filmske i televizijske produkcije na Akademiji dramske umjetnosti. Tijekom studija producirao je desetak studentskih filmova, a kao izvršni producent kazališne predstave radio je na Dubrovačkim ljetnim igrama. Sudjelovao je na Sarajevo talent campusu 2007. godine, te (kao scenarist) u projektu Sarajevo grad filma 2008. godine. Suosnivač je Grupe 7, udruge za audiovizualnu produkciju. Od 2008. do 2010. godine djelovao je kao vanjski suradnik Hrvatskog audiovizualnog centra. Član je Hrvatske udruge producenata od 2008., a Hrvatskog društva filmskih dje- latnika od 2011. godine. Dobitnik je Top stipendije za top studente i Rektorove nagrade. Vodio je filmske radionice u okviru Ljetne škole filma Gunja od 2010. godine do danas.

KOŠNICE (igrani; 2012; 70')

Četvrtak ujutro: Zagreb, Jeruzalem, London, Köln, Prag, Petero ljudi ustaje, ide na posao u pet

gradova-košnica, kao pčele. Tra- gajući za medenijim životom od onoga kojeg imaju.

Košnice su prvi dugometražni producentski projekt Ivane Kelava kojime je, kao producent, debitirao na ovogodišnjoj Puli. Inače, to je i Ivanov diplomski projekt na studiju Producije pri Akademiji dramske umjetnosti u Zagrebu.

→ Ivan Kelava was born in Brčko, Bosnia and Herzegovina, in 1987. He is a final-year student of Film and TV Production at the Academy of Dramatic Art in Zagreb. During his studies he produced a dozen student films and worked at Dubrovnik Summer Festival as executive producer of one of the plays. He participated at the Sarajavo Talent Campus in 2007 and at Sarajevo City of Film in 2008, as screenwriter. From 2008 to 2010 he worked as an associate of the Croatian Film Association. He has been a member of the Croatian Producers' Association since 2008 and of the Croatian Film Workers' Association since 2011. In 2010 he was awarded a Top Grant For Top Students and the Chancellor's Award. Since 2010, he has also conducted film workshops within the Gunja Summer Film School.

HIVES (fiction; 2012; 70')

It is four AM: Zagreb, Jerusa-lem, London, Köln, Prague. Five people getting up, going to work in five different cities-beehives, like worker bees. They search for a sweeter life from the one they are living.

Hives is Ivan Kelava's first feature film production project, with which he made his debut as a producer at this year's Pula Film Festival. The film is also Kelava's graduation project at the Academy of Dramatic Arts in Zagreb where he studies Film and TV Production.
